ARTHUR HILL

Seniors Dawn Trapp, Lisa Turner, Sean Hanley, and Stephanie Rosales are all smiles.

Tore Price and Alicia Fulgencio kid around in the hallway between classes.

Sara Gonzales and Lisa Deck are both happy to be survivors of "pet the snake", a physics project at Fiesta.

Tameka Prescott before practice.

IT'S ALL ABOUT The Way You Play The Game

If you were keeping up with the news during the summer and fall, you know what we as a nation survived.

First there was the Rodney King verdict which then started the riots in Los Angeles. Many people felt the verdict was unfair and racist against blacks. Which made the nations eyes focused on the L.A. riots even more. As the whole nation watch their t.v.'s while L.A. fell apart we all felt sad and mad. It took nearly two weeks before the riots really settled down to a hush. Now it will take years before L.A. will really or ever be back to normal.

As the riots settled down another crisis arose, Hurricane Andrew hit the southeast of Florida. The hurricane left many people without homes and without jobs. Andrew was the worst hurricane that ever hit Florida and will stay with the people for as long as they live. But the upper nation pulled together and donated many materials for the people left homeless. Like many celebrities as Gloria Estfen and donated time and money . Also major corporations like McDonald's helped donate food and supplies. As these tragedies and many more hit around the world we know that people can pull together and help one another. That's where Arthur Hill comes in and shows what we got. We are a bunch of kids that are up together to go to learn with one another. We show that we can do it by helping one another and showing that blue and gold spirt when it is needed. THAT'S THE WAY WE PLAY THE GAME.

IT'S ALL ABOUT

President, Dennis Novak marches proudly with the Arthur Hill band in the Homecoming parade.

The Arthur Hill Lumberjack joins the Homecoming parade for his first time.

The Homecoming Court gets to enjoy a cake made just for them.

Queen Naima has the pleasure of sitting on her throne of love.

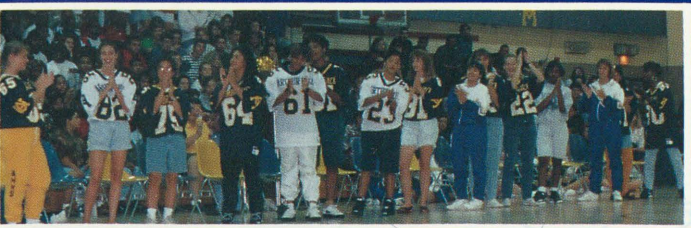

The guys also get their moment of glory.

IT'S ALL ABOUT HOMECOMING

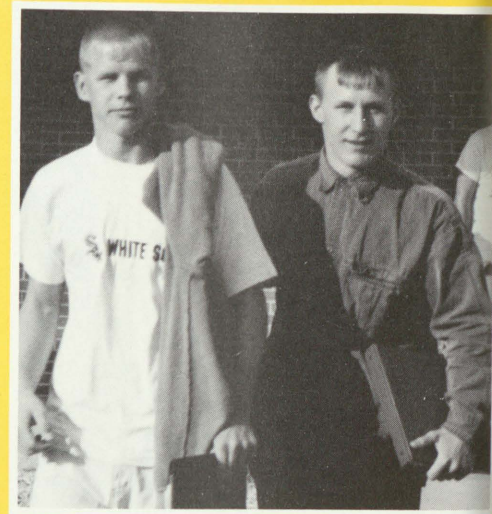

It's all about homecoming for these fifteen girls. It's all about football, joy, memories and most of all friendship. Homecoming gave a variety of girls the chance to come together in an effort to make homecoming a special memory for everyone to share. The girls were determined to stick it out through the good and the bad, but most of all they survived the freezing cold on October 16, 1992 at the homecoming game.

They started out their day of glory filled with excitement and nervousness. They showed up in the auditorium at 9:30 a.m. to provide entertainment for the student body and proud parents. As the assembly started you could that their nerves and worries began to fade away. They seemed to feel at home as soon as the music started. Every single one of these girls deserve the title of being a part of the 1992-93 Arthur Hill Homecoming Court.

Here's the court lined up in the gym for a pep assembly.

IT'S ALL ABOUT STUDENT LIFE

THE WAY YOU PLAY THE GAME

"What?!" - Sara Delaney is completely clueless.

A H F I E S T A

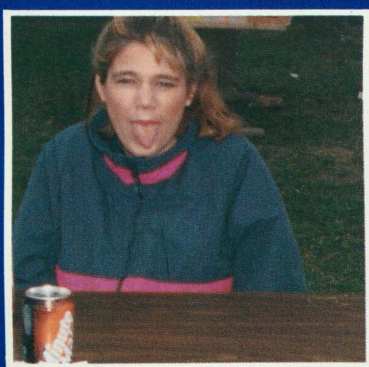

Belinda Hatch and Laura Horb sold fresh carmel apples for the Drama Club.

Playing the Color Game is how the cheerleaders got involved at Fiesta.

Joan says, "Why are you taking my picture, it's too cold."

"Take this pose," Sarah says.

Izetta Lee chows on a caramel apple, as fellow students laugh.

Christy Gaddis says, "Brr, it's cold out here."

Juniors show how much pride they have by participating in the Ski-Board Race.

The B.S.C. members take time out from selling cider to take a quick pose.

James Kanary says, "At least someone's having fun."

IT'S ALL ABOUT FIESTA

The annual Fiesta was held this year on October 15th, in the Arthur Hill Stadium. Once again, Powder Puff was not part of the activities. Powder Puff is one of the biggest crowd attractions at Fiesta. The girls safety and liabilities were the reasons given for not having the Powder Puff Game.

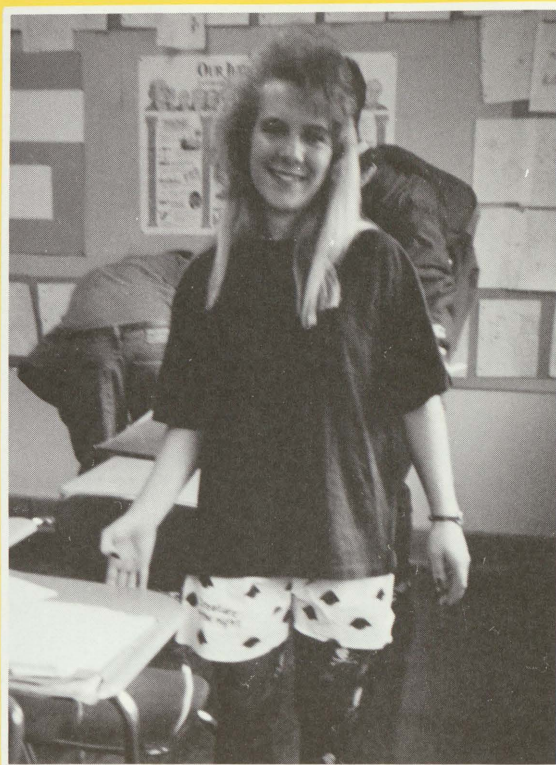

Still that didn't hold back many of the students from having fun.

Some of the events included a North/South football game, in which North won. Many clubs participated by setting up booths and selling things from freshly made caramel apples to burritos. Arthur Hill's Pride Committee sold mugs with a picture of the 1991-92 State Champions.

It was great to see so many students help to make Fiesta a success!

Taya Wilcox loves to show off her Halloween outfit.

IT'S ALL ABOUT HALLOWEEN

Arthur Hill Lumberjack's showed their great Halloween enthusiasm and spirit by dressing up in creative costumes. It was not only limited to student participation, but teachers got invoved too. Senior Kristina Munoz said "Halloween is an exciting time of year to see everyone creatively dressed." Senior Angie Inman "This year's halloween was her last chance to take her little brothers trick-or-treating."

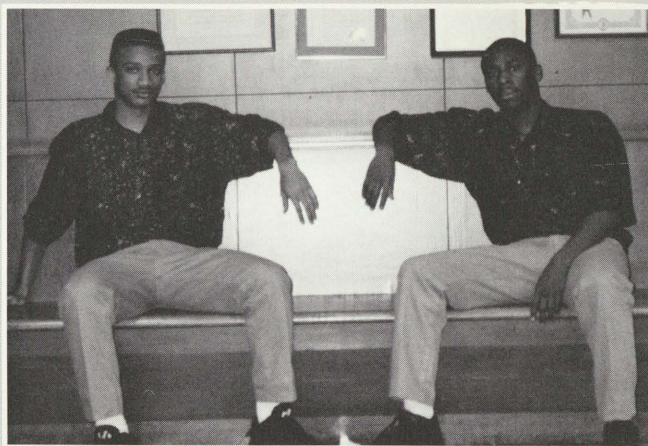

-Kelly Warner

Hillites go all out for the spirit of Halloween.

Seniors

IT'S ALL ABOUT Senior Futures

As seniors there are so many choices that we have to make, from the simplest thing like announcements to one of the more important choices, what to do with our futures. There are many different routes you can choose, you should never limit yourself. Many seniors have different ambitions and some even have a wide variety of goals. Many of us share the same hopes and dreams of becoming successful in our future. We all hope to attain specific goals in separate ways, shapes, or forms. With such a large class size, it is common to have a variation of future plans. This makes it possible for all of us to venture out into the world and express our individuality.

Many students are preparing right now to further their education in college. It's funny to realize how different we actually are. Students at Arthur Hill are entering many different fields of study. Senior Samantha Danhoff commented, "I hope to attend the Detroit Institute of Recording, where I hope to become a Recording Engineer." While Senior Kelly Warner added, "I'm going to Western to become an educator."

If you're not interested in going to college immediately after high school graduation, don't worry about it; there are many other things you can do. You could enter one of the armed services programs. Senior Dwayne Ferris stated, "I'm going into the Marines because I'm not ready for college yet." You could also take time out to figure out what it is you are actually interested in before you totally commit yourself. Senior Joan Romatz commented, "I'm going to Chicago this summer to audition for some acting roles, and after that I think I might go to Western."

As we the Senior Class of 93' venture out into our futures we all feel that we have many things to look forward to. We are inspired when we think about our futures, not frightened. We all hope to be very successful at whatever it is we choose to do.

-Angela Inman

IT'S ALL ABOUT

Senior Superlatives

These past three years our Senior class has had a lot of time to get to know one another. We've seen each other in and out of the classroom, at school functions, socially, formally, and at our very best and very worst. So who are the Seniors who have made a statement? Which Lumberjacks have made the impressions that have stuck in our minds? Driving records? Smiles? Personalities? Whatever it was that caused us to take a second look- they'll be hard to forget.

Throughout the following pages we have taken the time to capture our Hillites with the "MOST". We hope that years from now, when you sit down to reminisce the following pictures will bring back some fond memories and a smile.

IT'S ALL ABOUT

Senior's "One Moment in Time"

"Since the first day I walked into Arthur Hill I have never been the same". Joanna Clifford sums up the feelings of many of the 1993 graduating Seniors. Every one of them will leave Arthur Hill with "Memories of the Gold and Blue". The experiences here, both good and bad have changed many lives.

One moment in time that no Hillite can forget is the 1991 Varsity Football team winning the Class AA State Championship title and then once again returning for a "re-match" in 1992. "Being a member of the 1991 State Championship football team, being a member of the 1992 team and being a part of all the state record breaking", is Senior Jim Hildebrant's one moment in time. "It was being a part of the 'Tradition of Champions' and upholding the Lumberjack tradition of pride and excellence."

Several girls have the memories of Homecoming 1992. "It was so much fun practicing and getting ready for all the festivities with all of the escorts and my friends. It's a time I will never forget." said court member Lorie Kapp. Queen Naima McKissack's memory of Homecoming was making her queen elect speech. After graduation these girls will take a part of Arthur Hill tradition with them, along with everyone that took part in Homecoming.

Seniors will shed tears during graduation because they will be taking separate paths. Many seniors will continue on to college, some will join the Armed Forces and others will enter the work force. They will be exchanging the safety and security of high school for the uncertainty of the "real world".

School is not just a place full of books and teachers. To us it is much more. It is a place we've spent half of our lives learning and maturing. Together Seniors have met many battles but as Lumberjacks they've learned to fight until they have gotten what they wanted. Once they are "over the Hill" they will have memories and accomplishments they will treasure for a lifetime.

IT'S ALL ABOUT

Seniors are at the Top

When you enter high school you begin at the bottom of the scale as a sophomore. As you gradually climb the scale through out your high school years, you eventually end up at the top of the scale as a senior. Most students experience many improvements in the few years they attend high school and gradually climb this scale.

Seniors commented on many different types of improvements they experienced since their sophomore year. Some of the most common improvements were things like; an increase in athletic ability, mental growth, overall attitude improvements, not to mention just the status of being a senior instead of a sophomore.

Many senior athletes and students agreed that their physical talents or growth had improved. Senior Gary Garchow commented, "My body had definitely improved since my sophomore year." While Senior Tore Price added, "I am a more skillful soccer player, and a senior member of the Reindeers!" Many sports participants agreed that not only did their individual talents improve, but their playing abilities as a team also increased. "The longer you play together the better you get along, and the better your skills as a team improve. That's how I felt our basketball team had improved since my sophomore year," stated Senior Brooke Dietzel.

Improving academically becomes a top priority as seniors realize they will soon enter the real world. Many seniors said their grades had improved dramatically since their sophomore years. Senior Jo Anna Clifford stated, "My grades have really improved since my sophomore year, I'm starting to pay better attention in class now that I'm older and it's getting closer to graduation." Seniors naturally begin to pay closer attention to their grades with the concern of life after graduation. Senior Dawn Trapp commented, "My grades have improved, but I'm still trying to bring up my grade point average to meet college requirements."

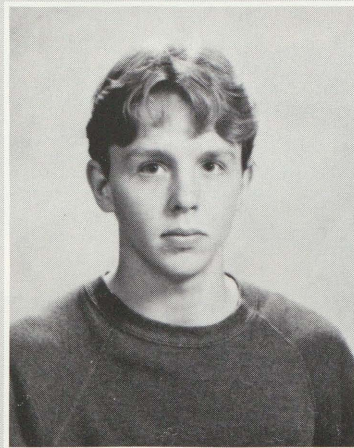

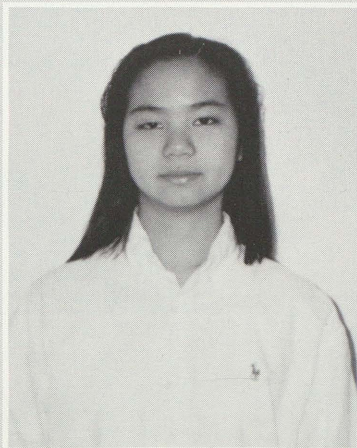

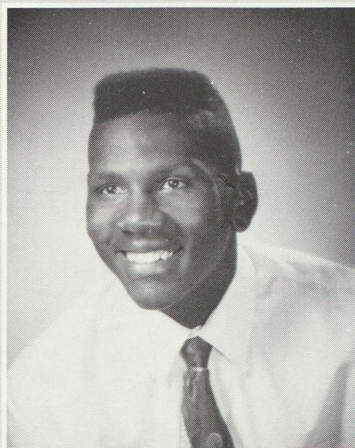

As seniors began to realize that they would soon graduate from high school they felt their attitudes towards school in general began to improve. Senior Dwayne Ferris stated, "My attitude towards school has changed so much since my sophomore year. I used to hate school, now I can't miss school- I love it!" The senior class as a whole felt their attitudes had improved, they felt they came a long way together. They also felt more confident and much more enthusiastic than their sophomore year.

"Your status improves when your a senior, people begin to look up to you, and that makes you feel good," commented Senior Matt Rice. Fellow seniors agreed with this opinion, most students wanted others to look up to them. Other seniors felt that just having gained friendships since their sophomore year made being a senior that much more enjoyable. Senior Sean Hanley added, "I've met a lot of new and interesting people since my sophomore year."

With all the improvements seniors had experienced since their sophomore year, they all agreed that just being a senior was the best improvement of all. They wouldn't trade being a senior for a sophomore if it was the last choice they were given. Senior Frank Chavez summed it up when he stated, "Seniors just plain rule!"

If You Can Dream It, You Can Become It

Seniors for two years we waited to climb to the top of the ladder, and now we've reached the top.

What are some of the advantages of being a senior. We'll there is of course the seniority and the authority we have at Arthur Hill. There is also the power we have over the sophomores and the juniors. Most importantly it is the way we made Arthur Hill our second home.

With advantages come disadvantages. All of the sudden there comes the pressures associated with being a senior. For instance trying to maintain good grades to get into college and then having to deal with the hassle of filling out all the applications just to receive acceptance.

The biggest disadvantage seems to be the thought of not walking back into Arthur Hill and seeing the faces we've seen for the past three years. It hurts to think that we will never see many of our friends again. Still many of us are anxious to get on with our lives.

Senior Angela Inman explained, "The most exciting thing about being a senior is that this our final year to leave our mark." It seems that our whole senior year has been one big goal. However once we leave this school we'll all have a chance to explore the world.

People have always said that your senior year goes by quickly. We have all found that statement to be true. We all looked forward to such unforgettable events like Homecoming, Prom, and Graduation.

We found that the three years we spent at Arthur Hill were some of the most important years of our lives. They were years that will always remain fondly in our memories.

In our final year we have one final statement to make: No matter who we are now, no matter what we want out of life, we hope all our dreams come true. As they say, "If you can dream it, you can become it."

CONGRADULATIONS CLASS OF 1993

EVENTS THAT SHAPED OUR YEAR

The 1992-1993 school year came with many changes locally, nationally, and world-wide. CIESIN comes to Saginaw, Hurricane Andrew struck southern Florida, the U.S. Marines arrived in Somalia to deliver food to a starving nation, and William Jefferson Clinton was sworn into office as the 42nd President of the United States of America. The following pages highlight some of the most influential events that shaped our lives at Arthur Hill in these exciting years.

June 1992

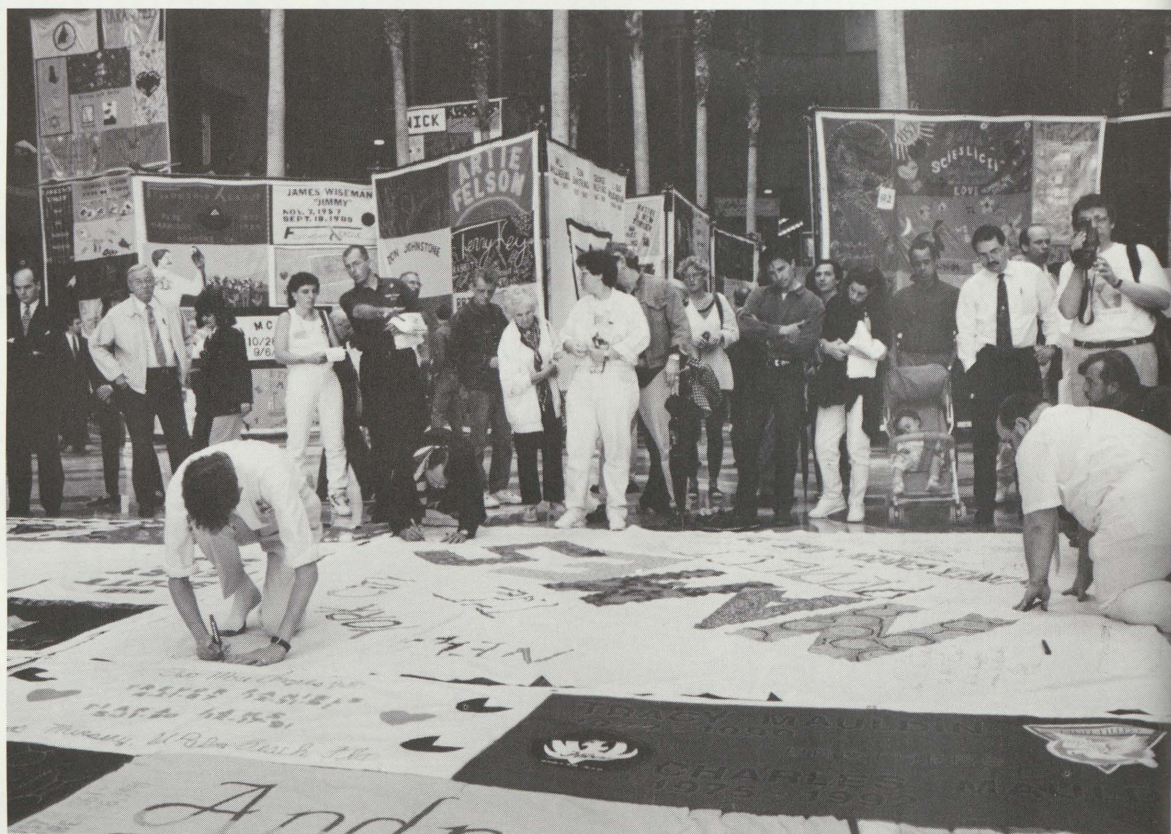

Bill Clinton, sitting in with the band, turned out an impressive version of "Heartbreak Hotel" as Arsenio Hall gestured approvingly in the musical opening of "The Arsenio Hall Show".

July 1992

Amsterdam and the Netherlands hosted the world's largest gathering of AIDS experts but unfortunately, no breakthroughs were made on halting the devastating sweep of this virus across the world.

Recognizing the losses here in the United States, people decorated panels of the AIDS Memorial Quilt in New York. The exhibition is part of a 35 city national tour.

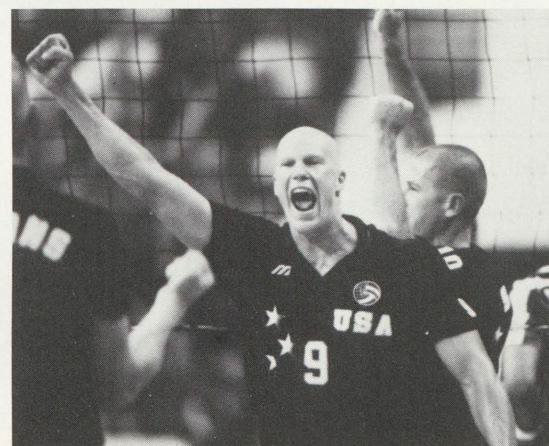

July 17, 1992

Presidential candidate and his running mate Senator Al Gore stood before a convention hall brimming with confidence in New York's Madison Square Garden.

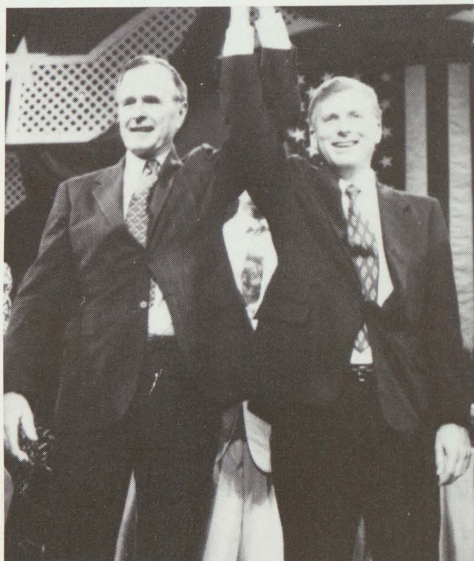

Summer 1992

The Olympics were transformed forever when professional athletes were allowed to compete in the 1992 Summer Olympics in Barcelona, Spain. The U.S. emerged from its two decade Olympic slump, finishing only four behind in the closest medals race since America won in 1964 in Tokyo. Now it stands poised to rule the sports world in Atlanta in 1996 after arguably its greatest Summer Games.

August 20, 1992

President George Bush and Vice President Dan Quayle roused the GOP delegates to cheers as they accepted their party's nominations for a second term at the Republican National Convention.

August 24, 1992

Hurricane Andrew struck southern Florida with winds gusting to 164 mph and a twelve foot tidal surge that flattened homes, uprooted trees and wrecked an entire Air Force base.

September 5, 1992

Van Halen, The Red Hot Chili Peppers, Annie Lennox, and Guns N' Roses were just a few of the artists awarded at the Ninth Annual MTV Video Music Awards.

September 19, 1992

21-year-old Leanza Cornett of Jacksonville, Florida was named the 66th Miss America. She plans to speak about AIDS Awareness and lead educational and motivational programs to spread a hopeful message.

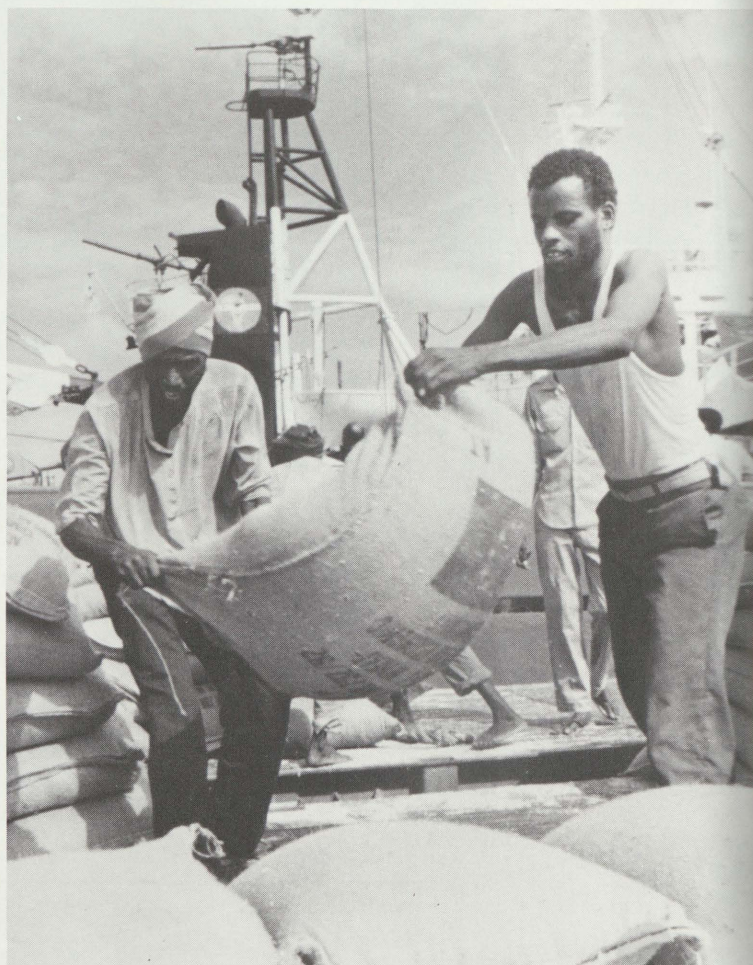

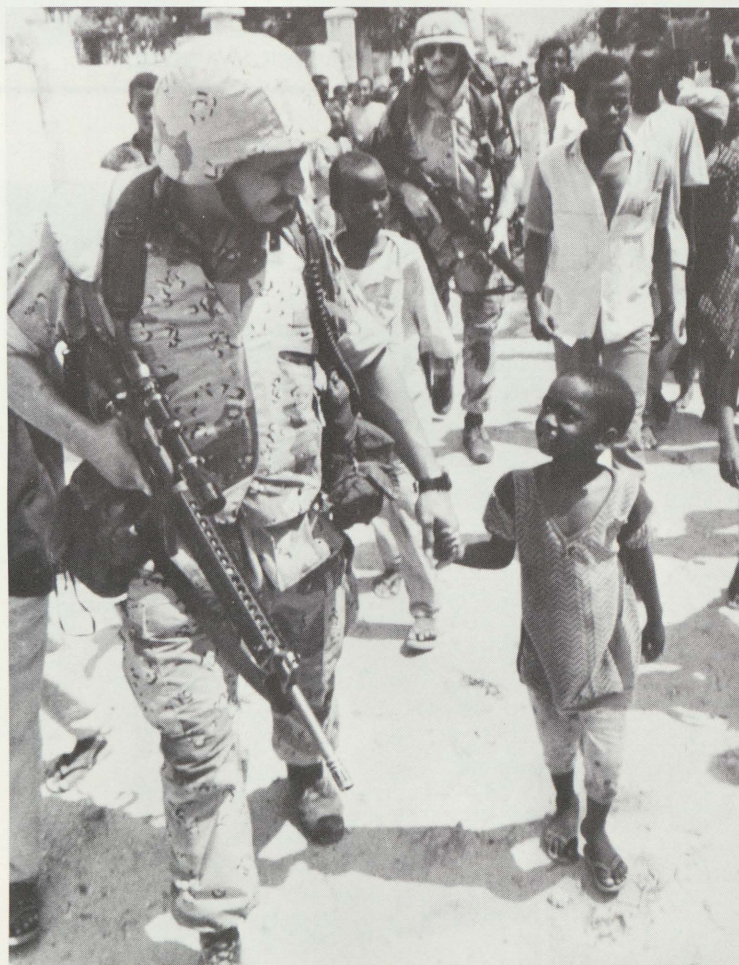

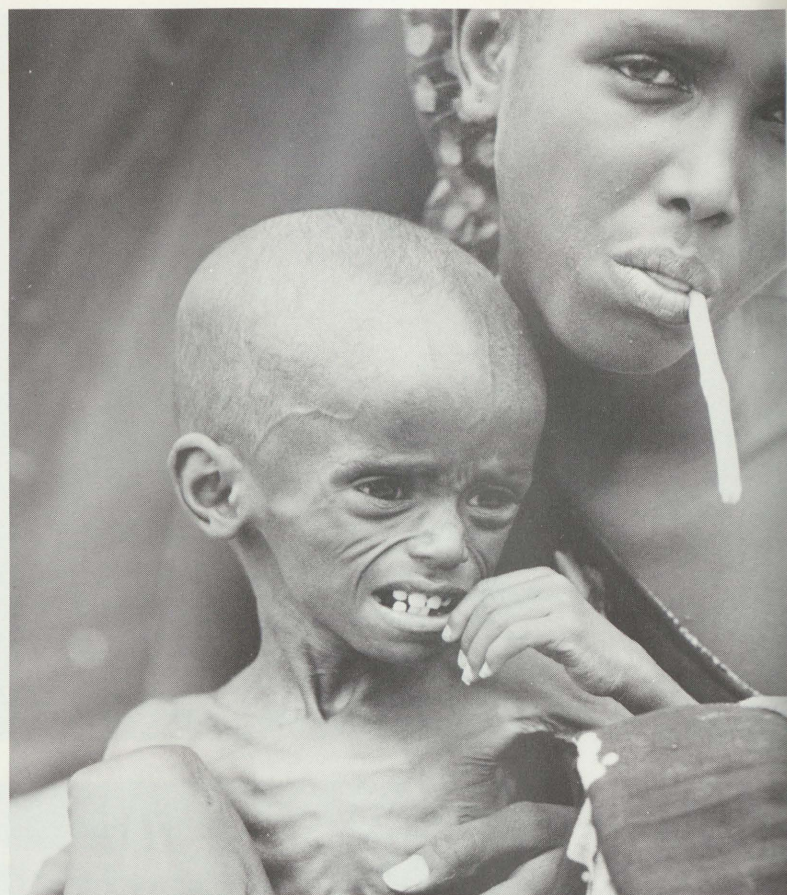

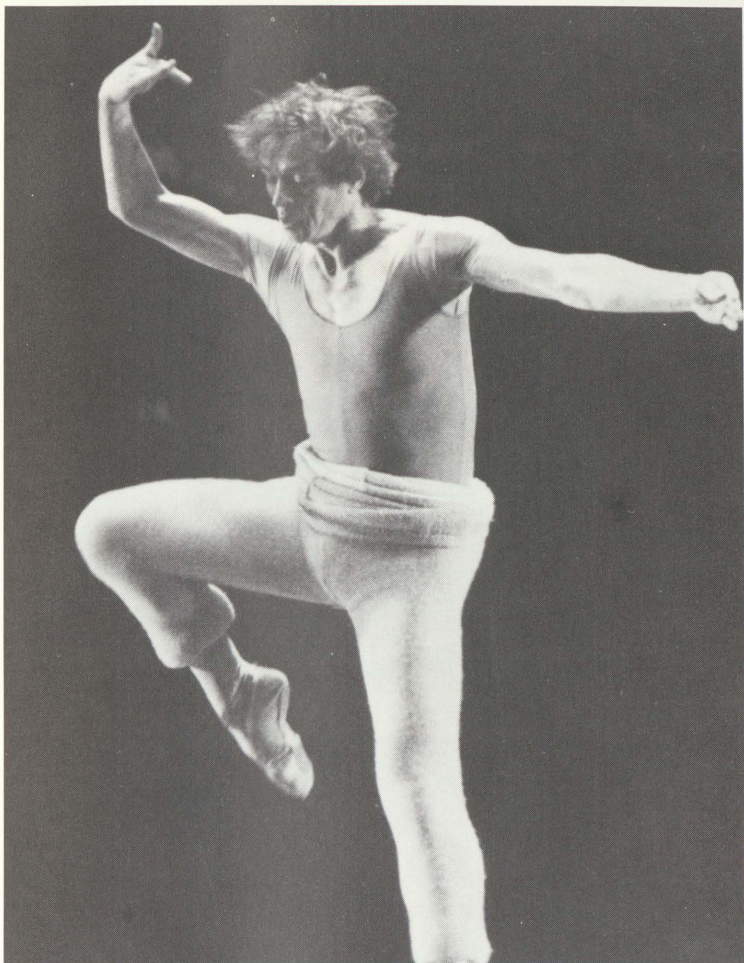

Fall 1992

Central Somalia woke up the international community with one of the worst famines in the history of the world. More than a million Somalis have fled their homeland for refugee camps in neighboring countries. Relief efforts of food, soldiers, and medical personnel reached Somalia from many nations.

December 9, 1992

The U.S. Marines arrived in Somalia to assist in curtailing widespread violence and the looting of relief shipments. The troops patrolled the streets of Mogadishu. Children waved as they pass and run to shake hands with those who have come to help.

March 3, 1938 - January 6, 1993

October 21, 1917 - January 6, 1993

The leadership of the Saginaw City Schools from the top down has been exemplary. The Saginaw City Schools have led the way in many aspects of quality and excellence in our educational delivery system. We should all be proud of our school system because it is a darn good one thanks to everyone working together.

I have always enjoyed going to work because I enjoy my profession. I have especially enjoyed my last seventeen years as principal here at Arthur Hill High School. I am Proud of our school, its students, parents, teachers, and alumni. The pride and tradition of "Achievement with Honor" is very much alive at the "Hill" today and for that reason I am very proud to be associated with our great High school.

M A T H

"I just love Algebra II/ Trigonometry and the way Mr. Frost teaches it. He makes it interesting," says Senior Elida Castillo. This college-like, independent-study teaching method seems to rate highly among the students here at Arthur Hill. From Applied Math to Calculus, these methods utilized by Mr. Scherzer, Mrs. Johnson, and several other teachers seem to benefit even the most discouraged math student.

Not only is math a requirement for graduation but everyone will deal with math for the rest of their lives. Math skills are necessary in balancing checkbooks, filing Income Tax reports, even paying monthly bills.

Although math classes may not seem important now, our knowledge of math can make or break our future.

-Jessica Stratton

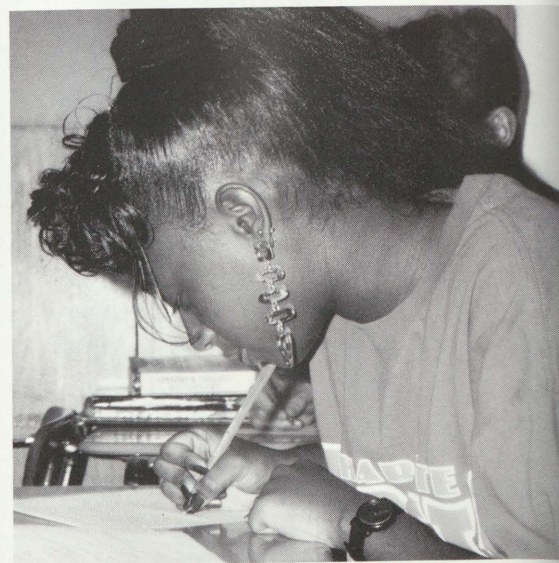

"Hey, I get it!" says Rebecca Schulz as Mr. Scherzer demonstrates a Pre-Calculus problem.

"I used to hate math before I had Mr. Frost."

SCIENCE

Students in Mr. Enszer's chemistry class succeed in completing their labs without burning down the building.

"Mr. Maisano is very energetic and outgoing and he makes science interesting."
-Kimberly Turner,

Shadana Williams seeking the guidance of Mr. Enszer's professional wisdom in Biology.

Sarah Lively clenches her pencil in hopes that she can remember the right answer.

If you're looking for an interesting Science class, the Arthur Hill Science Department has a lot to offer. Besides Earth Science, Biology, and Chemistry, you can take Astronomy, Human Biology, Natural Science, and Physics.

What makes these classes so interesting? Diverse teaching styles seem to be the opinion of many students. "It's a different type of class. You don't sit and read a book then answer questions. You work on an experiment and learn about it as you go," says Senior Richard Hammond about Mr. Stork's Physics class.

Some teachers use humor to keep their students interested. "My favorite class is Biology with Mr. Hyde. He uses drama and body language to describe what he's talking about. He also uses humor to keep your attention," says Sophomore Lisa Perry.

So whether your interests lay in growing plants or launching missiles, there is a class that's right for you.

ENGLISH

"It seems like we're all equal in there. Everyone gets along and learns to be more accepting. It's politically, morally, and intellectually curious", says Senior Johanna Landeryou. What class could she be talking about? Ms. Smith's Advanced Placement English class. Not only does Landeryou speak highly of her class, but also many other students agree that Ms. Smith's class is very exciting and a relaxed atmosphere for learning.

A Senior Stephanie Willis says, "she is really cool, we get to drink coffee, cocoa, and have discussions similar to talk shows. As far as work, we just read." As you can see, Ms. Smith truly deserves the Excellence In Teaching Award she won this year.

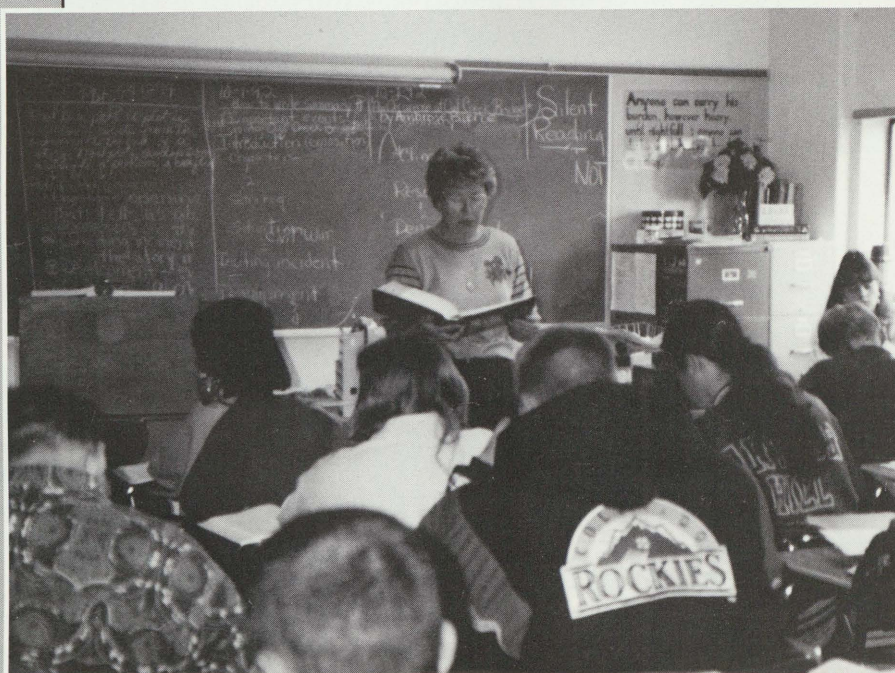

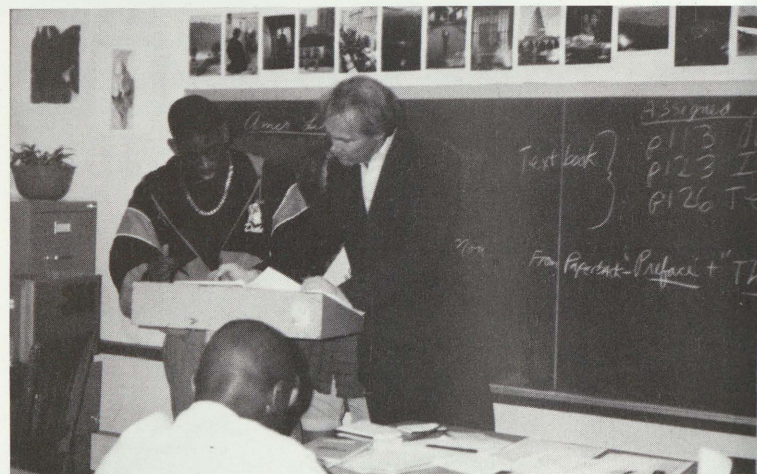

Other English classes offered at Arthur Hill High School are Appreciation of Literature/Composition, American Literature, and World Literature. Also offered are more non-traditional classes such as Creative Writing and African American Literature.

From United States History to Economics and American Government, Arthur Hill High School Students are learning new and interesting things about the history of their country, the world, and the way their government works.

Everyone has a favorite Social Studies teacher, one who has inspired learning with humor or non-traditional teaching methods.

"I was never interested in history before I had Mr. Heitkamp", says Junior Heidi Wiercinski, "His dry humor helped me to pay attention."

Some students don't think that knowing about history is important but being aware of past problems and solutions can help us with the future.

The Averill Career Opportunities Center offers many programs for the development of work skills. Auto Body Repair, Child care, Electricity, and Medical Careers are only some of the classes offered at the C.O.C.

There are three sessions at the C.O.C. First session is from 7:30 in the morning until 10:00 a.m. Second session runs from 10:05 a.m. to 12:35 in the afternoon. Third session runs from 1:15 p.m. to 3:45 p.m.

Attending the C.O.C. during third session can really lengthen a person's day, but Laticia Cirilo, third session, taking commercial foods, says that it is worth the extra hour per day.

"It's helped to prepare me for future jobs. It gives a person skills and training, and it is a good reference," Cirilo said.

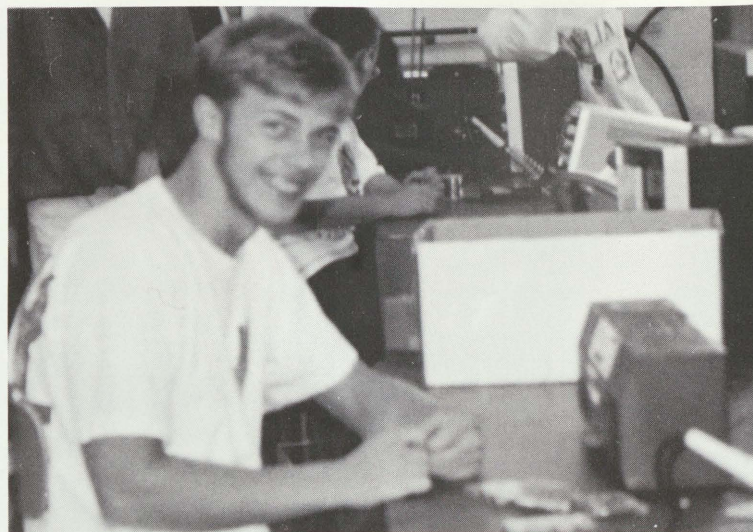

Junior Ned Budd, Public Safety, Law Enforcement and Security, agrees with the fact that it helps prepare a person for the future.

Budd said, "It is a nice place to go to learn about a specific career."

Students from many schools around Mid-Michigan attend the C.O.C.

This gives Arthur Hill students chances to meet and communicate with many different types of people.

These classes are offered to better the education of high school students, and many students are taking advantage of this opportunity.

A cultural experience. Musicals, dance concerts, science fair, living arts, and national issue forum just to mention a few of the interesting events which take place at the center.

The Center for the Arts and Sciences, or C.A.S., has a wonderful staff arranged under the direction of Keith Birdsall. The classes are as varied as the activities, ranging from math/science to vocal music.

"There's never a dull moment," said Cassie Dawes. Dawes is student that studies theater instructed by Stephen Weaver.

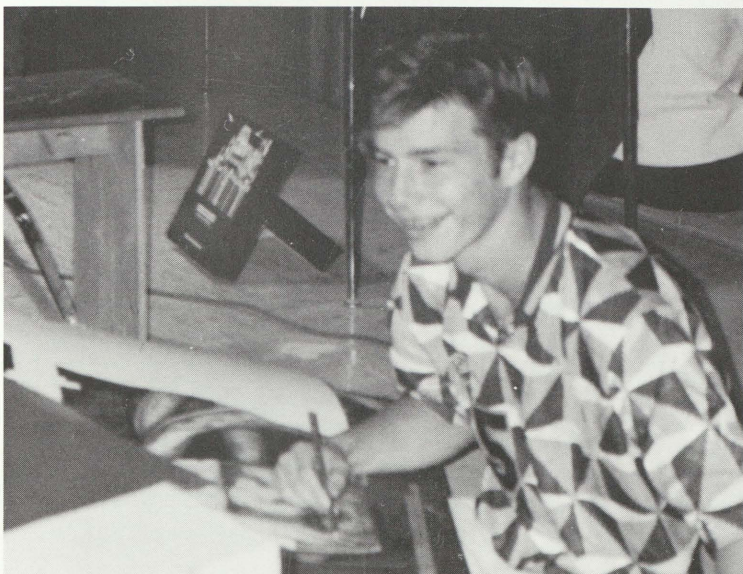

Many of our Arthur Hill students had things to say about Louise Harrison and her language arts class.

"It revolves around the student," says Brandon Guterrez.

"It is a truly supportive environment..... an inspiration," quotes Karen Schnurstein.

The Center is a pretty amazing and special program. The students attend the center a half a day, in the morning or afternoon. I can tell you for a fact the students consider attending the Center for the Arts and Sciences an academic privilege.

Mrs. DeFord's French Class is said to be far from boring. Junior Allyson Rose says, "The French students are very interesting. The class as a whole is a lot of fun."

"She is very patient and has a great sense of humor but she takes her job seriously," says Dana Thorton, a Junior in Mrs. DeFord's French class. French is only one of the many electives available at Arthur Hill. The classes vary from foreign languages to Art and Parent/ Child Development.

Another one of the electives that many people enjoy is Art. Senior Lisa Turner says, "Art is not what I expected. It is a lot more difficult than I thought it would be. There is more to art than clay and crayons!"

As you can see, there are many interesting and surprising electives to choose from. Selecting one that is enjoyable and challenging can make days at school less monotonous.

MIDDLE: "What word is that?!" says Dewhon Lyle as he translates his Spanish.

Students in Mr. Isotalo's Drafting class assist each other with the day's assignment.

"I like Drafting with Mr. Isotalo. Its not just book work we do. We do a lot of drawing activities and hands-on stuff."

The yearbook is not just a book containing pictures and words. It is a book that contains memories that will last a lifetime. A yearbook makes it possible to save all these memories because a picture "catches the moment".

Putting together a yearbook requires a lot of time, teamwork and input from the entire student body. Joan Romatz said, "Teamwork is very important. If one person decides not to participate not only does the whole class suffer but also the resulting yearbook."

Working on the yearbook is a valuable experience. When you see the finished product there is a sense of satisfaction and accomplishment.

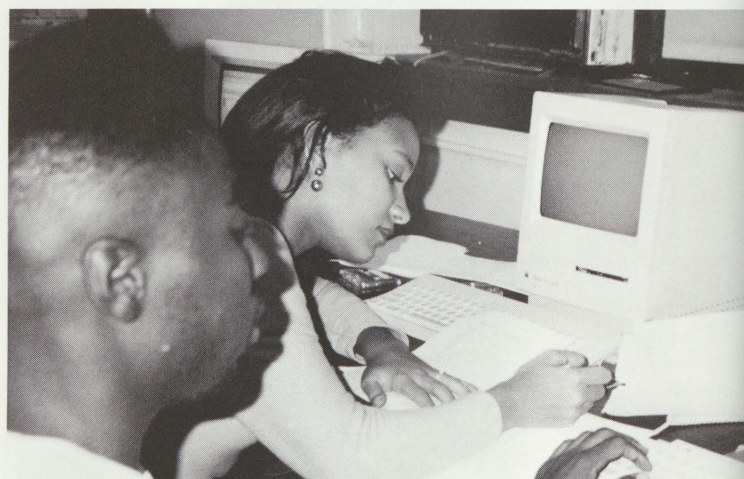

Yearbook adviser Cal Mott added, "This year's yearbook staff is the most talented of the three years that I have been an adviser here."

This year's news staff started out with few. Only 15 staff members, some were first year students with little or no experience in newspaper.

Under the leadership of Johanna Landeryou and some of the other editors, the news team has been able to keep up the pace of one issue every three weeks except for holidays and special events. The value of each issue has not decreased in length, quality nor pride.

For over 90 years, the Arthur Hill News has been a strong part of Arthur Hill and the tradition it carries. Winning many awards such as the "Spartan Award" and the "Quill and Scroll" award for many consecutive years, this paper is prized as a top newspaper among high school newspapers across the state.

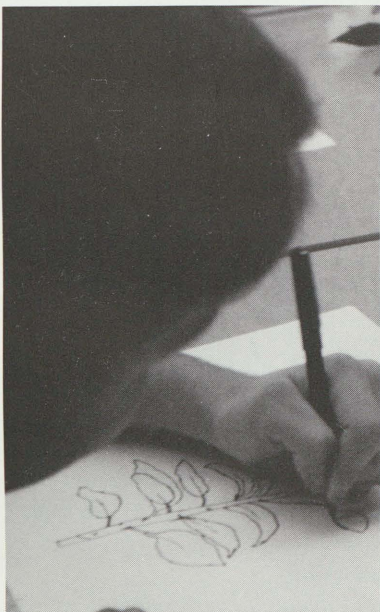

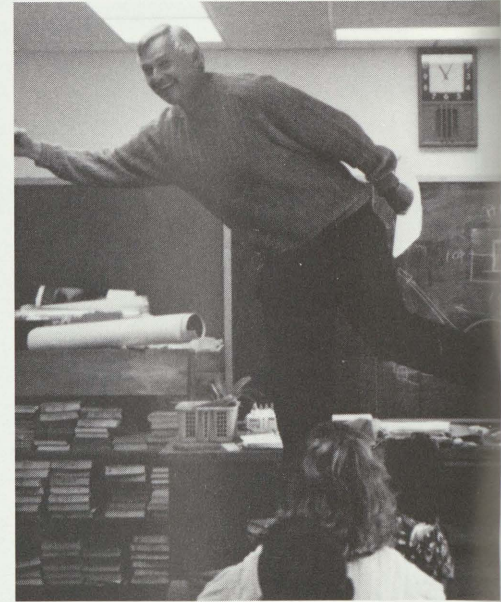

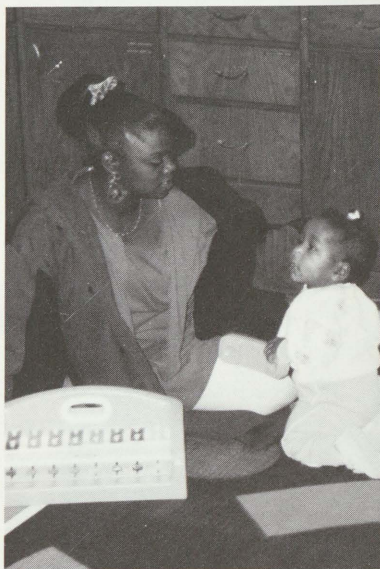

"This year I had one of the more interesting staffs I've had at Arthur Hill. I'm pleased they are able to keep up with the traditions set over the past seven years. Traditions that distinguished Arthur Hill over the centuries," said Patsy Procuro, newspaper adviser.

"We have an Arthur Hill reputation to uphold," Editor-In-Chief Johanna Landeryou said. "And we try to improve that reputation with every issue."

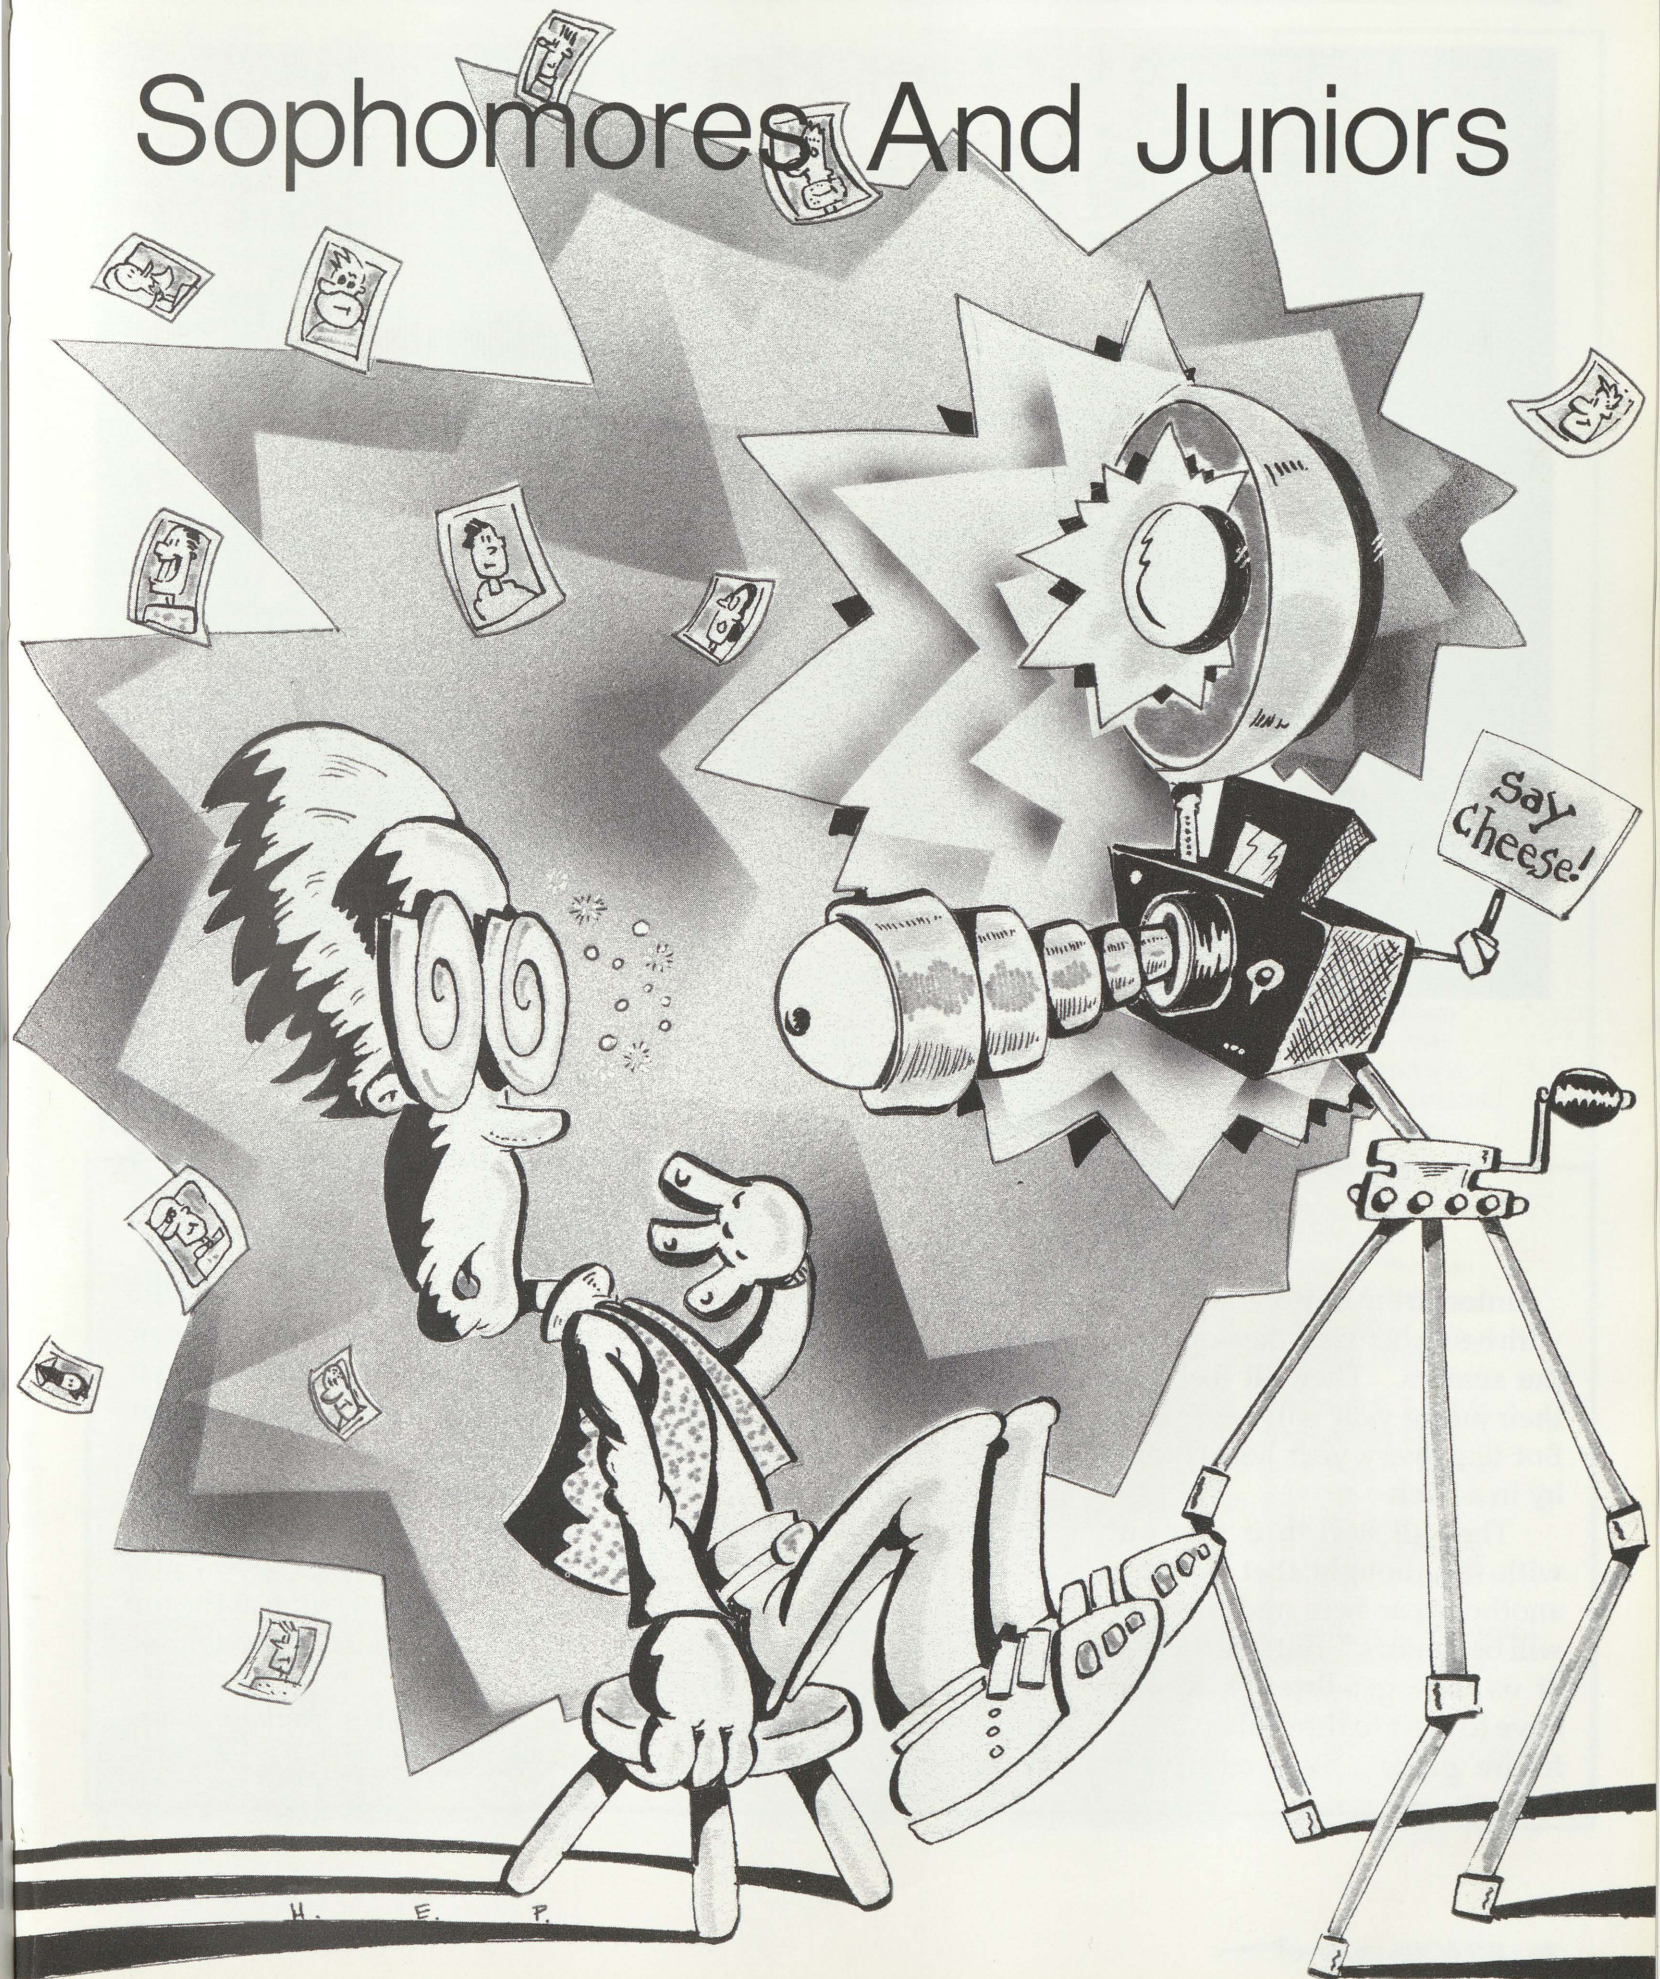

We hope that the students in the class this year and years to come carry on the tradition of an award winning newspaper and put in the time and pride that students have in the past.

DARE TO CLIMB THE HILL

Sophomores And Juniors

Juniors take pride in their work by studying in the library.

Stuck In The Middle

Juniors from day one are stuck with being between the slops and the seniors. They all feel that their junior year will never end. But like every year here it goes by in a flash.

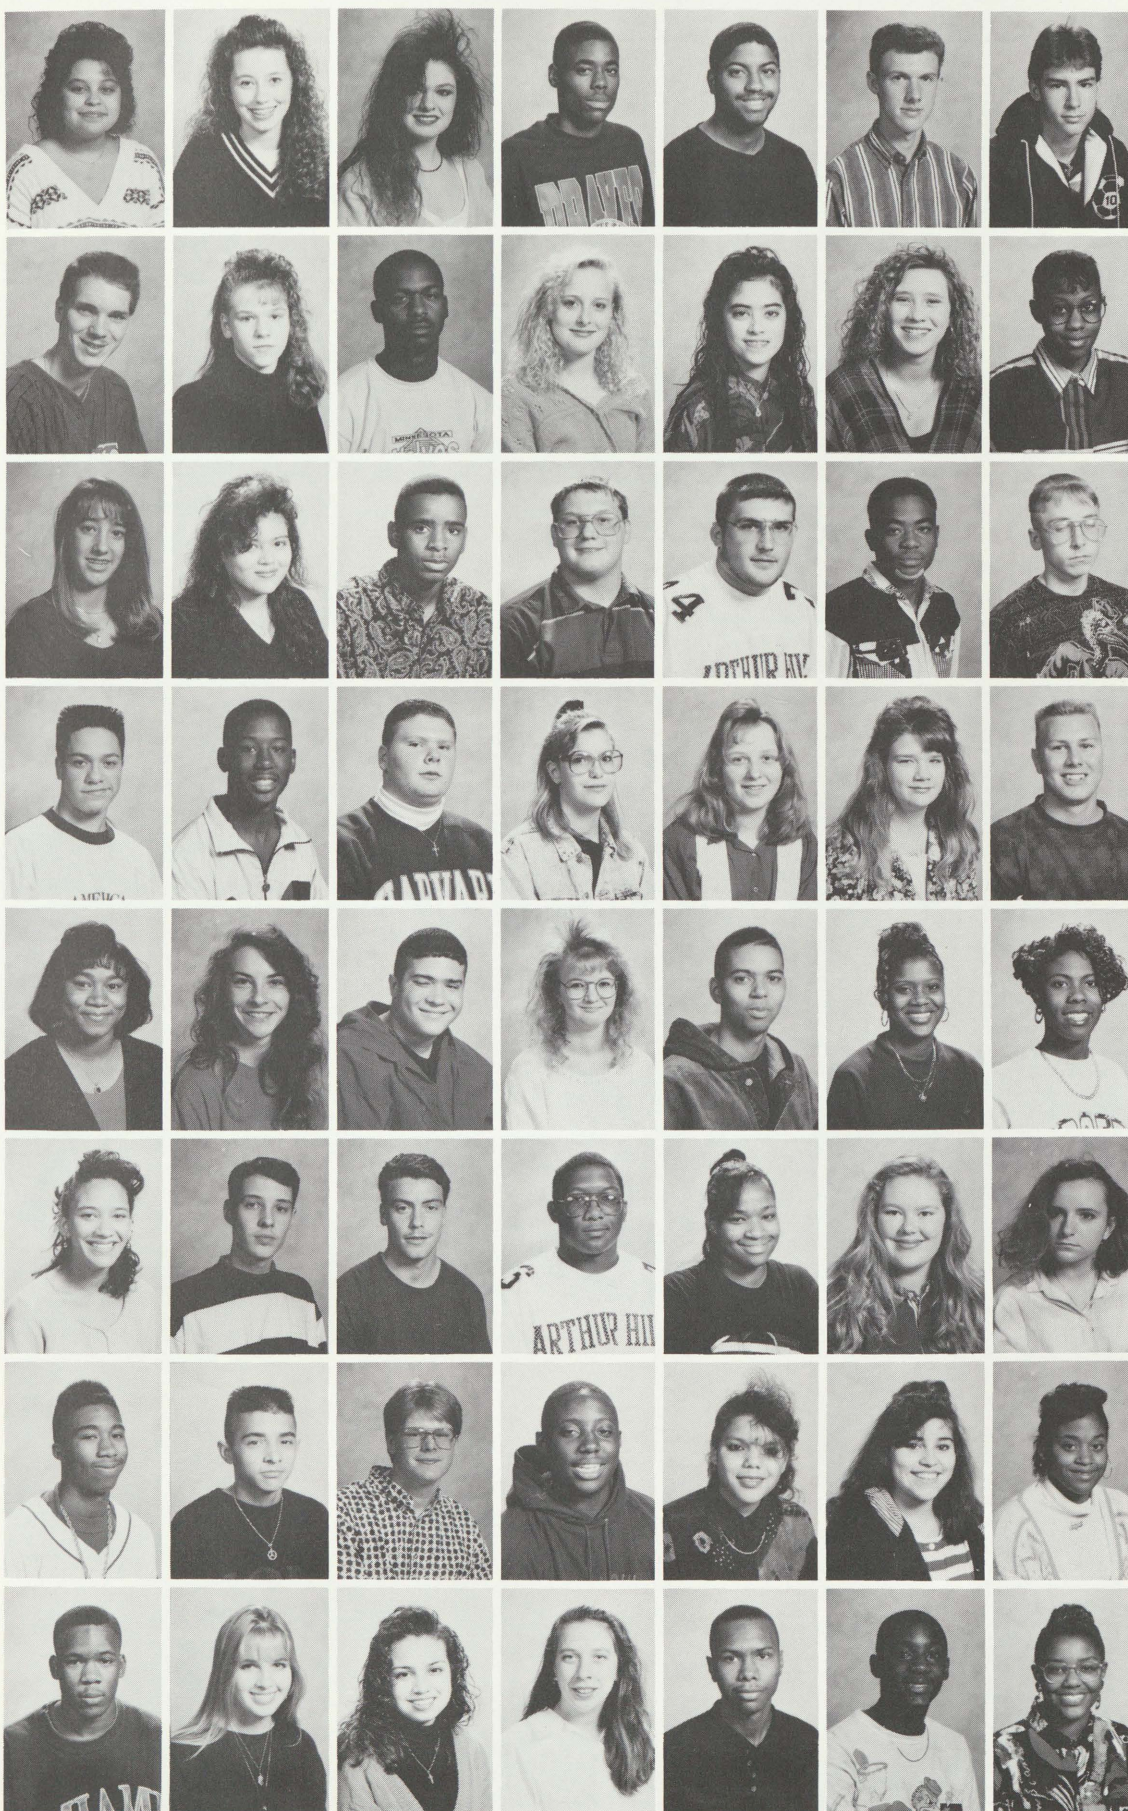

They all start their year out with the thought that "Oh no, another year here and then we will be seniors." But like the rest of us they get through it, and have to start to think about their future plans. Such as if they want to go to college or work for a year. Next year they will also have to deal with the fact that they are at the top and not the middle. Which they will all be thankful for that.

A lot of juniors have already started working on their senior year with their academics and sports. Jessica Stratton agrees that "Getting more involved and trying new things will help us through our senior year. It will also look good on our future records." Next year is also their last chance to be with all their classmates before they graduate. Even though they feel stuck in the middle they have many things to look forward to and remember. So don't worry juniors your year of being at the top will come sooner than you think.

Next Year's Incoming Freshmen

As long as Arthur Hill has stood there have only been tenth through twelfth graders walking through the halls. Well next year things will change. The board of education has agreed to move the city ninth graders to Arthur Hill. This big move to Arthur Hill will cause a lot of commotion but also joy for the incoming freshman.

Some may say that this move will bring nothing but trouble but there are also some good sides to the situation. It gives our school a chance to provide more opportunities for the freshman class. Such as preparing ahead for college and getting a start on academics.

But there is also a down side to the situation. A lot of students think that it will be too crowded or the ninth graders are not mature enough. Junior Sophina Brown says "I don't want them here because there will be too many conflicts involving our freedom and the privileges we obtain. There is also a lot of people that are concerned with the open campus scares. Treavor Eimers says "It doesn't matter to me as long as there will still be open campus."

With the new freshman to soon walk the Arthur Hill halls as students. There will be always be the confusion and joy in a school hallway, so we should all pull together and make next year and the years to come more joyful than ever. We also welcome our new underclassman.

WHAT WAS MOST FUN ABOUT BEING IN THE MIDDLE ?

Carlo Cardenas- Partying!

Carlos Zaragoza- All the senior girls.

Nieves Guzman- Being with all my friends my age.

Jennifer Guttman- Seeing my good friends in classes.

Tim Ledbetter - Not being a sophomore anymore.

Nathan Knapp- Knowing all the girls.

Christy Parent- Knowing that I'll be a senior next year.

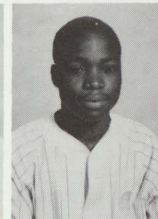

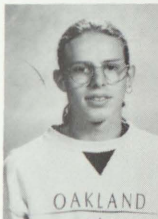

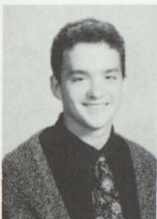

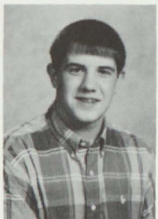

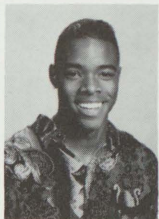

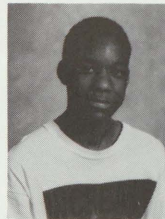

Monica Rudy- One year closer to graduating.

Stephanie Sharpe- No pressure to set an example, and no pressure to fit in! We're just there!

Arthur Hill. An inspiration to all who walk the halls. That's my own personal and biased opinion. I'm a junior now, and my sophomore year is over and gone, but the memories still linger. What could possibly be more thrilling than your first year at Arthur Hill? The excitement of the football games with spirited crowds, the anxiety of awaiting the Homecoming dance and festivities, and the positive atmosphere created by your friends and teachers. I would give anything to be a sophomore again.

Wondering how this year's sophomores felt, I decided to ask some of them just what they liked about Arthur Hill. Charone Bowman told me, "One of my first experiences as a sophomore was being elected to student council as a sophomore representative. I always felt that I was on the outside looking in, so I did something about it. Now I'm on the inside." An interesting comment was made by sophomore Bea Rodriguez, "I feel that the thing I enjoy most is being a member of the bible study group. I never had that privilege at my other schools." Candy Brown thinks a lot like the juniors and seniors, "Our football team is awesome!" On a humorous note Nikki Franz says, "So many guys, so little time."

I feel Arthur Hill is my home away from home, and I hope the sophomores feel that click when they walk down our halls. Remember, not everyone can be a Lumberjack, only the best and the brightest. Shine on Sophomores!

-Sophina Brown

SWEDEN

My name's Maria Rundberget and even though I don't have blonde hair and blue eyes I am from Sweden. See, all Swedes don't have blonde hair and blue eyes, that's a myth, but there are quite a few more then here, now that's true.

So do you know anything about Sweden? Well, it is the size of California, but has only 8.5 million inhabitants. We speak Swedish, which is a Germanic language, very similar to Norwegian and Danish. Our government is a limited constitutional monarchy (we do have a king & queen, but they have no power) with a parliamentary system. Some Swedish events, persons, groups you've probably heard of before are: The Nobel Prize, the ruthless vikings, Roxette, Neneh Cherry, Greta Garbo, Ingrid Bergman, Lena Olin, Stefan Edberg, and Bjorn Borg.

There are a lot of differences between Sweden and the U.S., but for the most part they are similar. We have McDonald's and Burger King, the songs you listen to and the movies you watch are popular in Sweden too, young people act and do much of the same things in Sweden as in the U.S.

What are some of the differences then? Well, language of course, norms and personal values (what might be appropriate in Sweden might be very inappropriate here), church and religion, laws, social-welfare system, taxes & prices, and Americans eat more junk food. Americans are more open to strangers, in Sweden we don't say "thank you" and "please" even half as much as you do in America.. Swedes walk and bike much more then Americans.

The school system is quite different. We start school when we're seven and have nine years of compulsory school attendance. In third grade we start taking English. Most students have exactly the same classes as their classmates through 6th grade. Then in 7th grade you can choose another language, you may choose advanced or easier English classes, but everyone must take English.

The 8th grade is exciting, because then we get grades for the first time. We get our grades in numbers one to five, with five as highest. But everybody in a class can not get a five. See, in Sweden you are compared to people in your class and other students of your age in Sweden. Only the three or maybe four best students in a class out of thirty, can get a five. I don't like our grading system too much, it's so competitive. After 9th grade you don't have to go to any more schools. But since the education is free, most of us (about 85%) attend upper secondary school for either academic or technical education.

I will do my third and last year when I get back home. Then I'll go to a university, which is also free, but you can only enter if your previous grades are good. There are limited places in the university, you can only get into the university with hard work; money doesn't count as in America.

We have extremely high taxes in Sweden, actually the highest in the world, so everything is very expensive. For example; to go to the movies it cost about $9, gas cost $4 a gallon, a pair of Levi's jeans $100, etc... However we get a lot in return as I mentioned before: free education, free healthcare, free school lunch, all parents receive $200 a month per child from birth through the age of 16, and if you go on to the upper secondary school you will keep getting $200 a month as encouragement. It may be hard to become rich in Sweden, but in return you never see homeless or starving people.

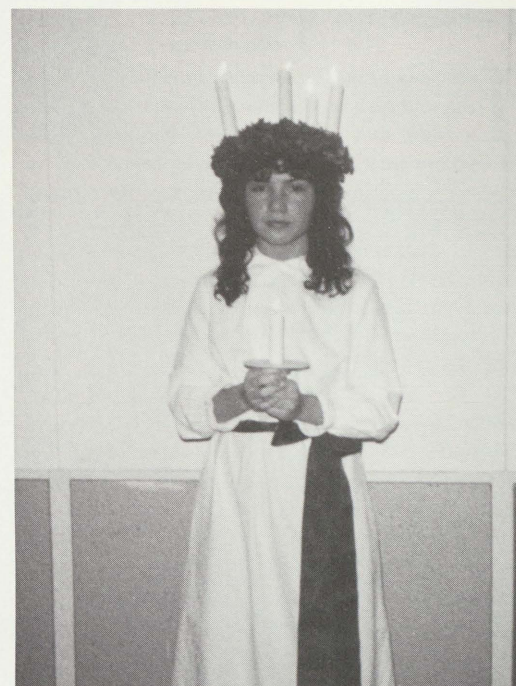

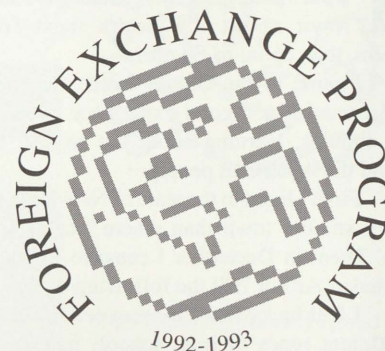

What do we do for fun after school and on weekends? Me and my friends go to cafe's and drink coffee and talk for hours, almost every weekend in the winter time we go skiing, we go to parties, pubs/clubs, movies, shopping, play soccer, and volleyball. When we're 18, we're legally considered adults: we can vote, drink and get a driver's license.

I do most of the same thing here in Saginaw as in Sweden, except for the skiing part. I really love playing soccer, I hope to make the soccer team here. My favorite sport to watch is hockey, so I've enjoyed going to the hockey games this year. I've also liked to watch the football, basketball, and the swim meets. When I first came here I thought that football was the most stupid and boring sport, but now that I understand the rules better and have seen quite a few games, I really like it!

Some of the things I dislike about the U.S. is that there are too many crimes and drug problems here. Money is too important and towns are so impersonal, they all have the same chain stores and chain restaurants. What I like about the U.S. is the people, they are very open, friendly, and have such spirit in everything they do. Their is convenience, cheap prices, goods & movies, high school is fun. America has everything in one country, wonderful beaches & tropical climates, perfect mountains for skiing in the Rockies, big cities & wild nature. I've been to Chicago, and I loved the city, Cedar Point was fun too. I'm glad that I get to see so much of this country.

America has always been the country of my dreams, and not everyone gets the opportunity to come here. Saginaw will always feel like a second home to me and I will never forget my American family and the friends I have made this year. As an exchange student you don't only make American friends, but friends from all over the world: Germany, Japan, Spain, etc..

I don't want to say goodbye, but at the same time I am looking forward to seeing my family and my friends in Sweden again, so it will be with mixed feelings, on the plane to Stockholm, Sweden. But I know one thing for sure. I will come back to the U.S.A, when I do I'll be sure to visit Saginaw.

Jorgen Klover

■ SWEDEN

My name is Jorgen (Yogi) Klover and I am from Malung, Sweden. Malung is a small town about 3.5 hours west from Stockholm, the capital of Sweden.

I came to the United States, because I thought it would be a good experience to live in another country, learning about the english language and the American people.

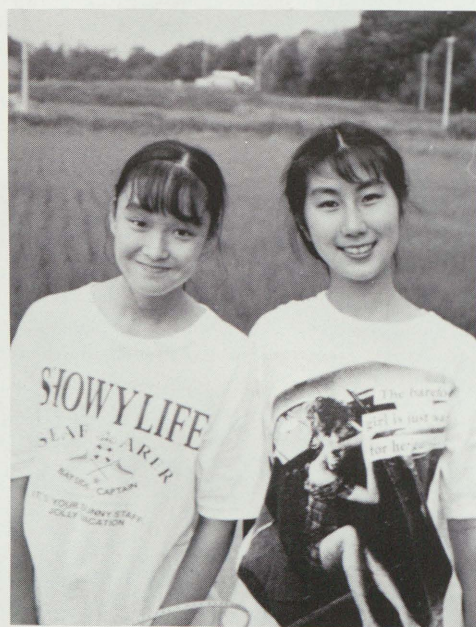

First, I lived in the state of New York and lived in a smaller town than where I came from Sweden. Then, in December I came to Michigan and started at Arthur Hill the following day.

I feel lucky that I have experienced two very different types of high schools here in the United States. Arthur Hill is definately the more positive of the two.

In the beginning, I felt that Arthur Hill was a very big school, it was almost a little scary. But after a while that turned into something positive. Here there are a lot of different people and there is always something going on. You also have more sports to choose from.

I choose to play Hockey. Along with it came the morning practices. I have to admit that I had a hard time dragging myself out of bed, but it was worth it. I had a lot of fun and now it's a luxury to sleep in until 6:15.

My family back in Sweden consists of my father Lars-Goran, who is a school teacher for 7th-9th graders. My mother, Hildegun is a nurse and she works at the hospital. I have two sisters. My oldest sister Bodil, 16 is a great Gun's-N-roses fan. My little sister Corina, 11 has just discovered the country western singer Billy Ray. My mother is from Norway and my father is from Sweden, so I have the best from both countries.

Emiko Murase

■ JAPAN

Hello. My name is Emiko Murase. I am from Nagoya, Japan. Nagoya is a very big city. The differences between Japan and the U.S. are the food, the language, and the people.

My favorite thing about America is the freedom. The least favorite thing is the lack of public transportation.

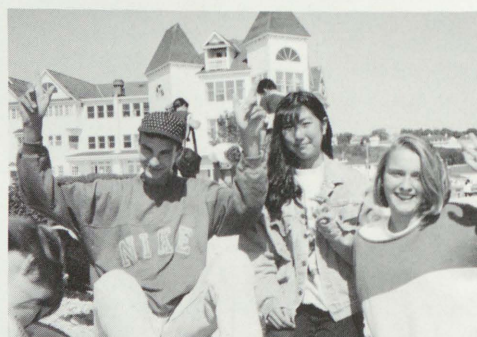

The school I go to in Japan is bigger than Arthur Hill. We also have school on Saturdays. We can't choose our subjects. We stay in the same class all day, the teachers move from class to class.

Our lockers don't have locks or doors they are wide open. We can't wear shoes at school, we have to change into our slippers. We clean the school ourselves.

I don't miss my family at all. I really like my host family. They are very nice people. I like the U.S. as much as I like Japan.

Sports activities are different here, once we join a sport activity in Japan we keep playing it year-round. However there are more sports offered here.

Overall I really do feel at home here. I like it as much here as I do back home.

Jairo Hirata Prado

■ BRAZIL

My name is Jairo Hirata Prado. I come from Brazil, South America. In Brazil, I lived in a big city called Sao Paulo, which is about as big as Chicago. So if you thought I came from the middle of the Amazon Forest, you're a little bit wrong.

There are a couple of differences between here and Brazil. There we can drink whatever we want, whenever we want. However we can only drive when we turn 18. Because there is no drinking age there, we can go to discos, bars and parties (with a lot of beer!). It's much easier to get into places like that then it is for you guys here. Most of the things that the teens do here, we also do there.

That's probably why I've been liking the U.S. so much so far. I met some really cool guys here (and some really cool girls too!). They are as nice as my best friends back in Brazil.

Also I don't have to ask my parents to drive me everywhere or have to ride the bus, because everybody gives me a ride here. Are there better things than a 7-Eleven in front of your house, a McDonald's around the block, and a Little Caesars two blocks down the street? NO WAY.

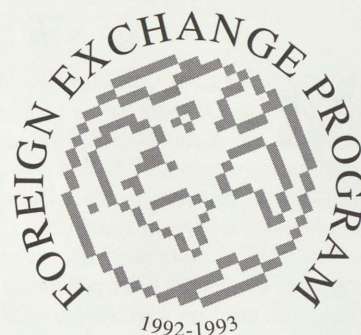

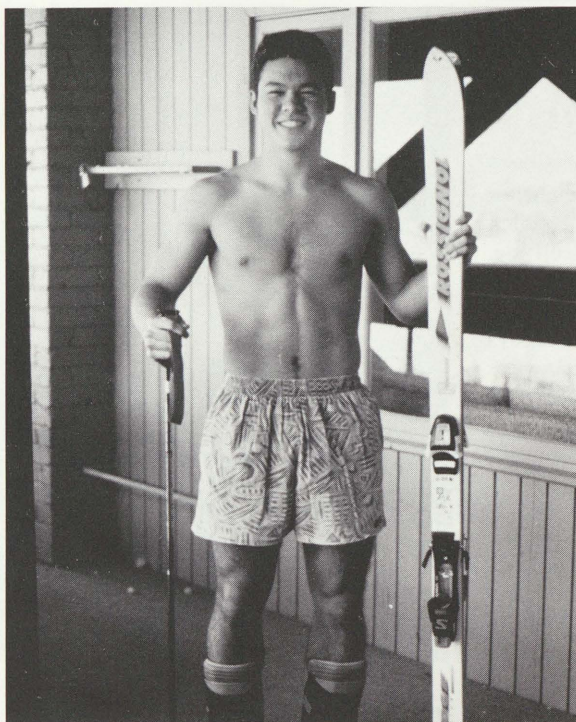

My school in Brazil is really different. It's a private school, with the same number of students, but with half of the space of Arthur Hill. Here you have a football field, a soccer field, a baseball diamond, a swimming pool, a gym, and a track. There we only have a gym, that really sucks! We don't switch classrooms like here, but the teachers do. Instead we switch schedules everyday, having different classes and about 15 to 17 different subjects. Therefore we study a lot more (you guys are luckier).

I've been in the U.S. for 7 months, and throughout this time I've been writing a lot to my family and friends in Brazil, who I miss a lot. I even have a 6 month old brother whom I still have'n't had the chance to kiss. But on the other hand, here in the U.S.A. I have another family who helps me and loves me a lot too; I have 4 brothers, 2 sisters, 2 fathers, and 2 mothers! (Do you have a bigger family than mine? I doubt it).

I'm writing this part about me without hair. Strange? Oh, well, Shaving my head was one of the sacrifices that I had to do as an Arthur Hill swimmer. Swimming here took a lot of time and hard work from me. But it gave me some awesome friends, it helped me keep in shape during the winter, and I also had a lot of fun. (Is there anything better than the valley party? Ask the swimmers.) Now I'm joining the tennis team, which will also be fun. I'm going to try to go mountain biking again, too

My best new experience here was skiing, I had my first lessons here. I went to Aspen Colorado. This is where I experienced the best skiing in America. (Once more Thanks A Lot to the Doanes, my first host family, who made all this possible!)

I Love The USA!

Ayumi Yamashiro

■ JAPAN

My name is Ayumi Yamashiro and I am from Japan. The main difference between the United States and Japan is that U.S. grocery stores are huge. In Japan, we don't have even one as big! Americans cook and eat differently and the school system is very different.

I like the American school system better. I also enjoy American T.V. shows more.

The major activity that I participated in was varsity volleyball. It was a really good experience for me. I want to thank all who helped me, and the Arthur Hill High School Volleyball team.

Overall, I have really enjoyed my stay here in America.

Marta Lopez Solis

■ SPAIN

My name is Marta Lopez Solis, I'm from Spain. I'm a senior here at Arthur Hill. At the beginning of the year everything was new and different, but it was difficult too, because you have to make new friends and live with a family that you don't know.

Everything was nice; the teachers, guys and girls at school, and even the strangers were great. The teachers were very friendly and helped me a lot whenever I needed it.

After four months, there were problems with my host family, so I moved. I met a family at my friends house and they decided to pick me up and take me to their house. Everything was settled so quickly that now I'm very happy. My new family the Denno's are great.

In Spain you can drink, smoke, and go to the disco at any age, here you can't.

In Spain we go out at midnight and come home at six or seven in the morning. We have so much fun. While here we go out early because we have to be in by 1:00 or 1:30 at night.

I like the USA because people are very friendly and the teachers help you all the time. I like the football games, swimming meets, and hockey games. In Spain the only sport that is important is soccer, and I don't like it very much.

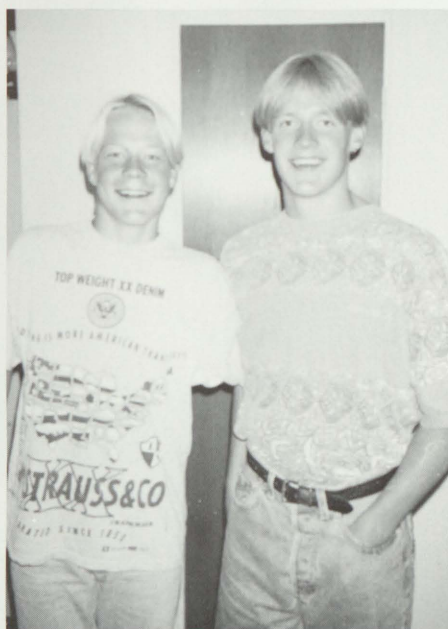

I don't like how small it is here. There aren't as many places to go. Especially if you don't have a car, you can't go anywhere.

My school is so different. It's a catholic private school. When the bell rings, we have to be in front of our seats and pray before class. We have only one class for everything. It's an all-girl school, including all women teachers. The only men in the schools are two priests and the garden man. We started at 8:45 and finish at 4:20. The subjects are so difficult. We have 10 subjects that we study five hours a day, we don't choose our classes.

I miss my family and my friends, but there's only three months left here. I think that this year passed by very fast. The Denno's took me skiing, snow mobiling, flying in a plane, and they let me go out whenever I want to.

About the activities I do; I'd like to say I love to ride horses and I love to swim.

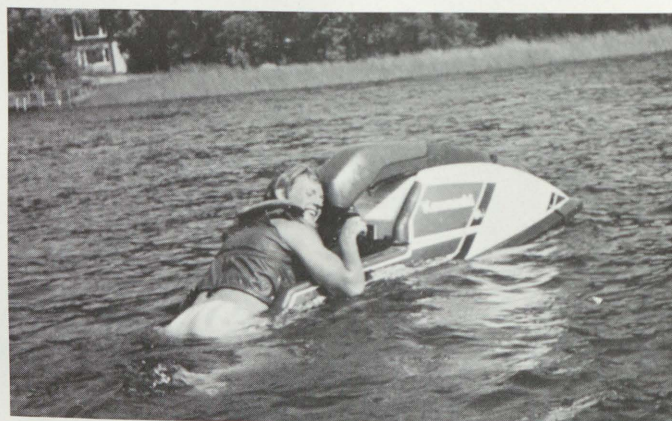

I do prefer Spain, but I think that this year was fun and that this has been a very good experience. I think that everybody should get to try this.

Jarmo Valvio

■ FINLAND

Hi, My name is Jarmo and I came from Finland. Finland is a little different from the United States. First of all we don't speak English, we speak Finnish. We have to be 18 to drive, but we can also drink when we are 18. There are some days that we don't celebrate like Thanksgiving and Halloween. The people of Finland are a little different, there are no minorities.

I like the U. S. very much and I wish to move here some time in the future maybe. I like the American people and so on. However I don't like fast food very much.

My school back home is very different and in fact so different that it would take a long time to list all the differences, but here's a few; we don't have as many sports, we study a lot more, and classes are a lot harder.

I miss my parents a little bit but not that much. I write them every now and then and sometimes call them. My host family is very nice. I stay with the Kanary's and they are all really nice.

My classes here are a lot easier here (Drama, etc.). But I like them a lot. I just try to have a good time and not to put too much effort into school.

I have many friends too, and on weekends I try to party and have fun, party much like in Finland. I play hockey because that's what I like to do. My activities here are the same as back home.

The hardest question people ask me is if I like it here. I like it here a lot but I guess I'm a little patriotic and that's why I have to say that I like them both, but Finland is just a little bit better.

Mami Hamaguchi

■ JAPAN

August 23, I arrived at Saginaw, and I had hopes and anxiety at the same time. I really felt I was alone...but it was not true. When I saw my host family, I felt relieved. Then my American life began.

First I could not understand what people were talking about. I just answered easily when people asked me questions. However I enjoyed everything, because everything was new and interesting.

Then school began. I remember I was nervous for everything at first day of school. New school, new class, new people-I could not feel comfortable first, and I felt I was alone again. However it was not true also. I knew many wonderful friends were around me. So my school life got better and better.

Everything had gone so fast. I had a lot of fun, for example, new school, football game, marching band, new subjects, hand-bell in church, Thanksgiving, Christmas, track practice, Easter vacation, skiing, etc. I really enjoyed those things.

When I noticed, this great year had almost gone. I didn't think my English was getting better and better, because it was very difficult. However I can feel now. Without helping I could not do anything. I want to say thank you to my host families and friends. They were wonderful, and I'm happy to know them. I really enjoyed with them.

I had very good time in the U.S. I will not forget this great year.

■ GERMANY

The major difference that I relized are mainly in the school system and in the government. The German government is more of a democracy than an authortaiarn government as here. There are also differences in people's attitudes, especially where it comes to rules and curfew-times.

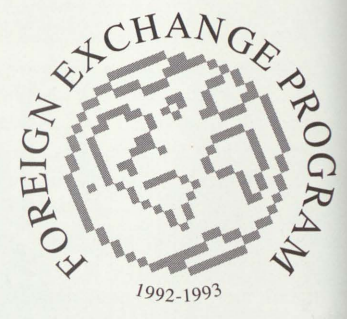

Our school system is very different, we are divided into three different secondary schools in fifth grade. According to your grades and abilities you fourth-grade teacher recommends a secondary school. The three secondary schools are called "Hauptschule", "Realschule", "Gymnasium".

Students are split into three different schools 70% go to the "Hauptschule", 15% to "Realschule" and 15% to "Gymnasium". "Hauptschule" and "Realschule" go from 5th to 9th or 11th grade, while the college-bound students in the "Gymnasium" have to suffer for the longest time, 5th to 13th grade. I just finished 10th grade in Germany and this year doesn't count for me, so I have three more years to suffer when I go back.

I don't really miss my family, I like it here very much. There are reasons for me not to miss my family and there are of course, some things and people I miss a little bit.

I do miss the hills that surrounded the village I live in Germany because as a dedicated mountain biker, I feel kind of weird because there are no hills what so ever here. I could run up and down the ditches, but gets quite boring after a while. I do however, like playing tennis.

A lot of people asked me if I like it here better than Germany, this is a very hard question to answer. Like always, there are 2 sides to this, there are things I really like and there are things I don't care of at all.

Record Breaking Lumberjacks Lose in Championship

still champs at heart and at AHHS

The 1992 Hillite gridders broke the previous record of 19 consecutive victories with 20, after beating Adrian in the Class AA State Semifinals. They were the second undefeated team ever in AHHS history. The first was the mystical 1973 team that went unscored upon and undefeated. This year, the hillites also broke seventeen Class AA Championship records individually and as a team.

The Lumberjacks started the season with a victory over the Heritage Hawks, who were admitted into the Saginaw Valley League shortly after the football season. They continued their winning streak throughout the season, ending the regular season with a 42-16 win over cross-town rival, Saginaw High. That victory made it 22 straight wins against them. By doing so, they secured their third consecutive Saginaw Valley League title, their first outright since 1981.

Heading into the playoffs, the Jacks were the number one team in the region followed by: Grand Ledge, Rockford, and Holland West Ottawa. They kicked off their first playoff game slowly, with Holland West Ottawa drawing first blood on their opening drive. The awakened Hillites came back to trample West Ottawa with the score of 27-6.

The next on the playoff list was Grand Ledge. The game was intense. The score was 17-14 Grand Ledge, heading into the fourth quarter. With the time running out and the rising to their feet, chanting cheers, and showing their true blue and gold spirit. The Hillites had one chance left and capitalized on it, with a pass from Marvin Wright to Howard Foster with 29 seconds left on the clock. That touchdown secured the Hillites another victory and the Regional Crown.

The #1 ranked team in the state (Detroit Free Press) and the #9 rated team in the nation (USA TODAY) moved up to one last game before reaching the "Dome" for the second consecutive year. The Jacks came up with yet another victory against Adrian, with the score of 13-7.

This would only mean that the 1991 Class AA State Champs would get another chance in the "Dome." Playing the same team from a year ago, Detroit Catholic Central, the gridders came up short. The game was lost with the score of 21-20, Detroit. Despite the loss, they are still champs.

We think that Coach Eurick's statement says it all, "These guys will go down in history books as one of the greatest teams in Arthur Hill history. It's been an excellent year and this team will be remembered by everyone as one of the best ever. Thank-you guys for a great season, thank-you Coach Eurick for helping our guys get there, and thank-you fans for showing up in blue and gold despite the score or the weather, and thanks for always supporting our team!"

WHAT WERE YOU THINKING?

"Oh my God! All that hard work in the summer and all those practices in the cold. To get here and lose."

-Kardel Sangster

"I realized that it just wasn't meant to be. That's life you win some and lose some, That's what AHHS football taught me to overcome adversity."

Kickers Poised, Ready

The Hillite Kickers came into the season poised and ready for a big year. With seven returning starters from last year's team, they were destined to be the best in the area.

Winning their first three games with a goal ratio of 5 to 0, the Kickers had tremendous momentum going into their first valley game against Midland High School. The Lumberjacks lost the hard played game with Midland scoring a single goal with three minutes left to play in the game. Two weeks later Midland High School forfeited the game to give the Hillites another win. The Kickers went for a 2-3-1 record in their next six games.

"Jim Foster, Tore Price, Rob Dean, and Alex Alaya were the team captians and they did a tremendous job providing leadership for the team both on the field, off the field and verbally. The team has good passing and ball control skills resulting in wins and goals scored", said Coach Carpenter.

The Hillites only allowed twenty-one goals all season while they scored fifty-nine goals. Goals were lead by Senior Tore Price, with sixteen goals, eight assists and by Junior Nick Andrewes who shot in thirteen goals and dished out six assists.

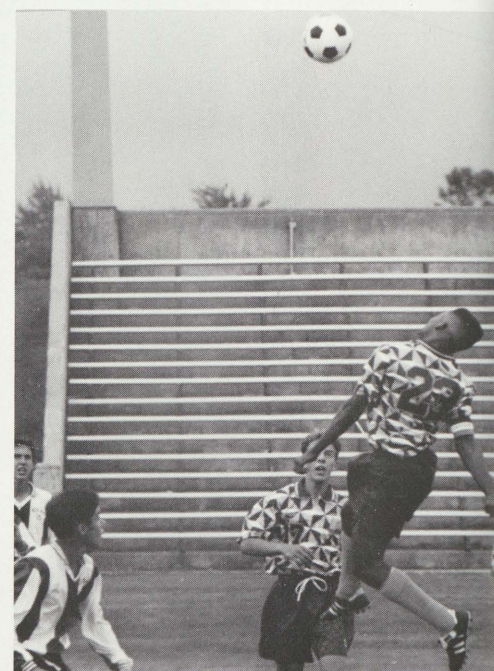

The Kickers were looking forward to a good run in the state playoffs, but fell short of their goal by losing to Midland Dow with a score of 3 to 0 in the first round of the Saginaw Valley district tournament.

Cross Country Team Surprises

This year's Arthur Hill cross-country team was just chocked full of surprises.

The boy's team suffered only a few losses of runners in the form of one graduated senior and three other runners unable to participate this year.

The girls' team was where the real surprises were. For the first time since Coach Harvey Mattson has been coaching at Arthur Hill, the girls were able to boast a complete team of at least five members.

"It was a rather pleasant surprise," Mattson said. "To come from one runner last year to a complete team this year was something I was not expecting."

The girls' team consisted of: Sara Platko, Sara and Stefani Cole, Becky Topham, Laure Thebolt, Terri Graham, and Emiko Murase.

While Platko was the only returning runner for the lady harriers, the boys came back with veterans Matt Allington, Alex Oeming, Greg Dammann, and Rob Doane. Dave Marino, Joe Lupo, and Rick Ramirez also contributed to this year's team.

Unfortunately, neither team had the necessary strong top five runners one needs for a complete team.

On the boys' side, Lupo and Allington battled amongst each other for the number one runner's spot with Oeming and Doane each vying for the number three position.

Although Dammann was the fifth runner for Arthur Hill, he was not as strong as Mattson would have liked and none of the others seemed to be able to take his place.

The girls' undisputed number one runner was Platko followed by the Coles and Topham. Thebolt was the fifth runner with Graham and Murase coming in close behind.

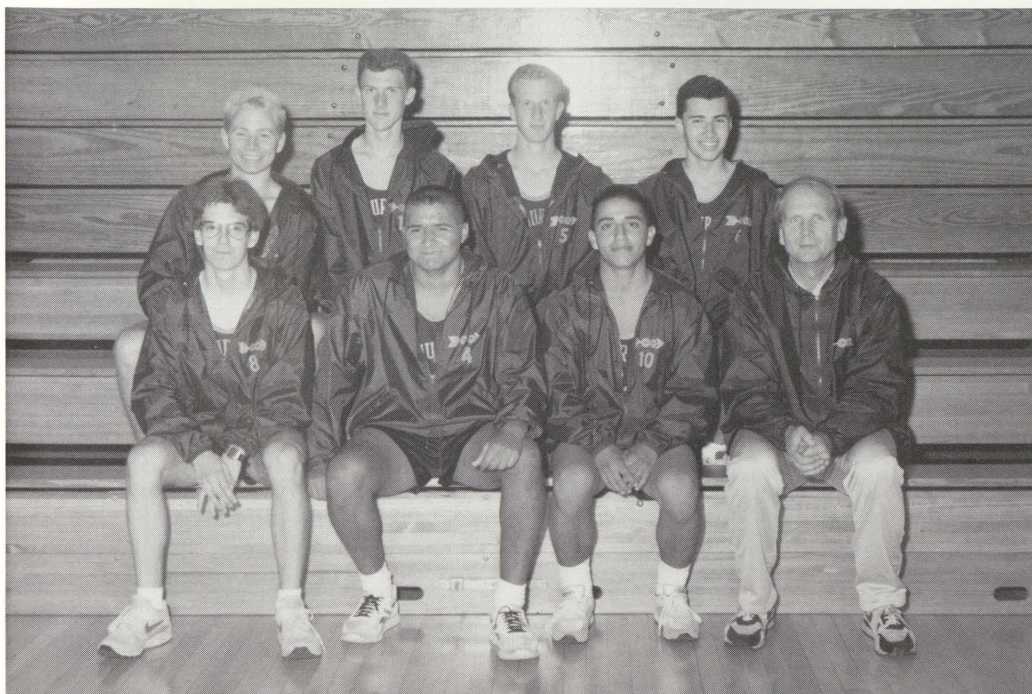

A last surprise came to Mattson when Lupo qualified for the state meet after braving the cold late-October winds during the regional meet.

Among both teams, only three runners are being lost and with most of the members vowing to come back next year, Mattson is looking to be a driving force in the Valley and County.

Lady Cagers Come Through With Team Spirit And Participation

The lady cagers came through this year with a record of 4 wins and 17 losses. Although not many games were won, the team spirit and participation was tremendous. The girls played hard and tough all season long.

They are a young team, with only five seniors and are looking for improvement next year. Graduating seniors Chantel Simmons, Brooke Dietzel, Tameka Presscott, Victoria Brown, and Aliya Morris will be missed greatly. Courtney Schaeffer, Christy Gaddis, Adrienne Cliatt, Tawana Frazier, and Melanie McGuire will all be the teams nucleus next year.

The girls opened up the year with a loss to Clio and came back with a victory over Bridgeport. After the second game of the season the team fell apart losing 12 straight games before finally beating Bridgeport again 41 to 12.

Even though the success of this years team wasn't the greatest, they always played hard and together. "We are a team, we play our hardest throughout the entire game, even though were behind," commented Chantel Simmons.

Lady Netters show dedication

The Arthur Hill Girls Tennis Team has come a long way. With the leadership of a strong senior line-up and experienced Juniors and Sophmores, the lady netters had a very eventful season. Despite the 2-10 record, long faces were hard to find around the courts. Instead, determination, dedication and fun were common. Many of the 1 or 2 point losses were hard fought battles and taken to heart. All in all the lady netters had a lot of fun and chalked one up for experience.

Lady Swimmers Finish Fourth in Valley

The swim team may have been smaller in size and had relatively younger members, but they surprised many people with how well they did. They all agreed that their biggest accomplishment was placing fourth in the Valley. They only had twelve members this year, none of which were seniors, but that didn't stop them from performing to the highest standards. "We had a winning season this year, which we haven't had in a long time," commented Junior Margaret Ciolek.

Many swimmers improved individually which helped the team improve as a whole. The team gained strength because of the fact that two of their members Juniors Hiedi Mueller and Jenny Stelzer participated at Nationals which gave them a little more experience. Junior Hiedi Mueller also set a new record in the 100 yard Back Stroke. Hiedi stated, "I was really excited that I reached the goal I set for myself." The girls all attributed their improvements to their coaches Mr. Bray and Tim who encouraged all of them to set goals for themselves and accomplish them.

Not only did the girls receive a tremendous amount of support from their coaches, but they also received support from their team mates. "Spirit and support was one thing the swim team did not lack," Commented Junior Jenny Stelzer. They always supported each other during their meets. Often complaining of strained vocal chords, from all the cheering on of their fellow team mates during meets. They definitely had a lot of spirit, you could hear their chants of support and excitement throught the hallways whenever meets were taking place.

Even though the swimmers had a lack of participation this year, hard work and a lot of determination pushed the girls to beat the odds that were against them. When their season was finally over all their efforts proved well worth it.

Arthur Hill Golf Team Rebuilds

The Arthur Hill Varsity golf team had a good rebuilding year after they lost four out of six regular players, and one more who contributed throughout the year. The linksters finished sixth, 5-5, in the Saginaw Valley Conference, and 6-13 overall.

At the Flint Central Invitational Best Ball Tourney, the golfers paired off into two groups of two, and had high expectations heading into the event. Both twosomes scored a 42 in a torrential rain to finish fifth out of eleven.

In the Valley Finals, with the help of the sun and warm weather, Mike Girard and Andy McIntosh both shot 90 to lead the Hillites to sixth place out of eleven teams.

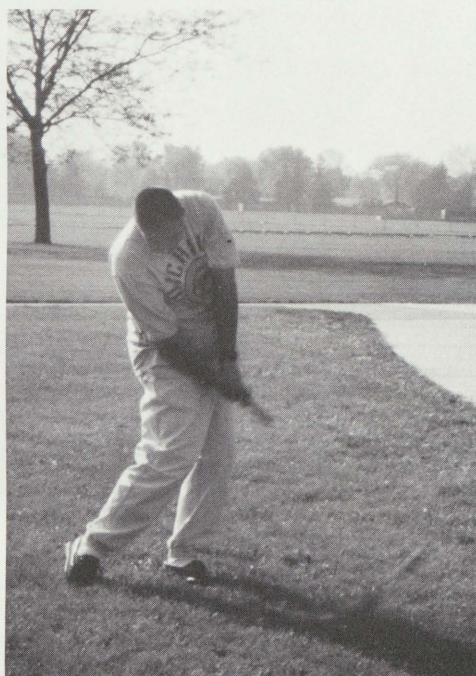

Sleet, wind, rain, cold, and hail raised scores at the Regional competition, contributing to the team finishing sixteenth out of eighteen teams. Ben Jennings was the medalist for the Arthur Hill team with a 98.

"This was one really nice bunch of guys to work with," states Coach Thomas. "We shot some good scores, shot some bad scores, but played a lot of nice courses and made some new friends." Junior Mike Selk adds, "It was a fun but long season."

For their season accomplishments, Jason Straight and Andy McIntosh received an honorable mention award for the Saginaw Valley League, and Mike Girard was awarded the highest award on the team for being selected on the All-Valley second team.

Cheerleaders Create Crowd Enthusiasm

Some people don't consider cheerleading to be a sport, but like any of the other athletic programs here at Arthur Hill it requires time, effort, and a lot of practice. Junior Alicia Fulgencio commented, "Although the practices are long and tiring, it's worth it when I see the crowds involvement it makes it all worth while."

Cheerleaders provide crowd enthusiasm and show the upmost school spirit. They represent Arthur Hill's pride and excellence. Many of the spectators and sports participants really appreciate the support the cheerleaders give them during the many sports events.

They also project the spirit that their fellow Hillites possess, and for some of the students who may lack this enthusiasm they bring it out in them. That's definitely the main purpose of the pep assemblies that the cheerleaders often coordinate and host, to get every Hillite involved and enthused.

Many fans will never forget the Blue and Gold Hankie's that cheerleaders distributed to them at the Jackson and Silver Dome games, they now serve as a form of memorabilia. Kristen Mickey, one of the squads member's, made the hankies along with the help of her mother. This was just another token of support that cheerleaders have been known for in the past years.

The varsity cheerleaders now consist of nine members with Co-Captains Ellen Erway and Lorie Kapp leading the squad. Their coach Rosa Murray is a big support and great form of guidance for the girls. The girls all feel that they've worked great together in the past years and are glad to be a continuing form of excellence at Arthur Hill.

POM PON ENTERTAINS CROWDS

The Arthur Hill pom-pom squads are a source of entertainment and optimism through both the basketball and football seasons. They impress the crowd with innovative music and creative dance steps.

Routines are choreographed to music ranging from classics like "New York, New York" to various popular artists. Variety contributes to the success of the squad. When different pairs of girls make up routines, we get that variety. "I think the crowds like to see that type of variety in our performances," stated Varsity Captain Jessica Stratton.

Both the J.V. squad and the Varsity squad perform at all football and basketball games. They perform during halftime to keep the crowd involved and excited while they wait for the continuation of the game.

Both squads are coached by Tammy Brewer. She keeps them in shape and in line for all performances. Many people think Pom-Pon is just a bunch of girls dancing around, but that is not necessarily true. The girls work very hard at practices and have to practice for hours to get routines just right.

The practice usually pays off at competition time. The J.V. squad realized that their practice had paid off when they place 9th at a competition at the Palace of Auburn Hills on December 19th. They also took 2nd place for the Spirit Award.

Both squads continue to practice through the year for upcoming competitions. They like to be prepared for such events. They also like the fact that they are always able to count on each other. Sophomore Nicole Johnes commented, "I like the unity we all have, everyone on the team sticks together. We have had our ups and downs, but we all stick together as a whole."

That's what being a team is all about sticking together and showing your true spirit. That's what The Arthur Hill Pom-Pon squads are best known for, their outstanding spirit and support to all of our sports teams.

Cagers Braved Inconsistent Season

Arthur Hill basketball 1992-93 season held a great deal more excitement and winning than a year ago. The Hillites started the season on a winning note by defeating Swartz Creek by a convincing 20 points. Last year the Hillite "5" lost their opening game to Swartz Creek, but winning that game was a big confidence builder for the rest of the season. They ended 1992 with a 2-1 record by losing a close game to cross-town rival Saginaw High.

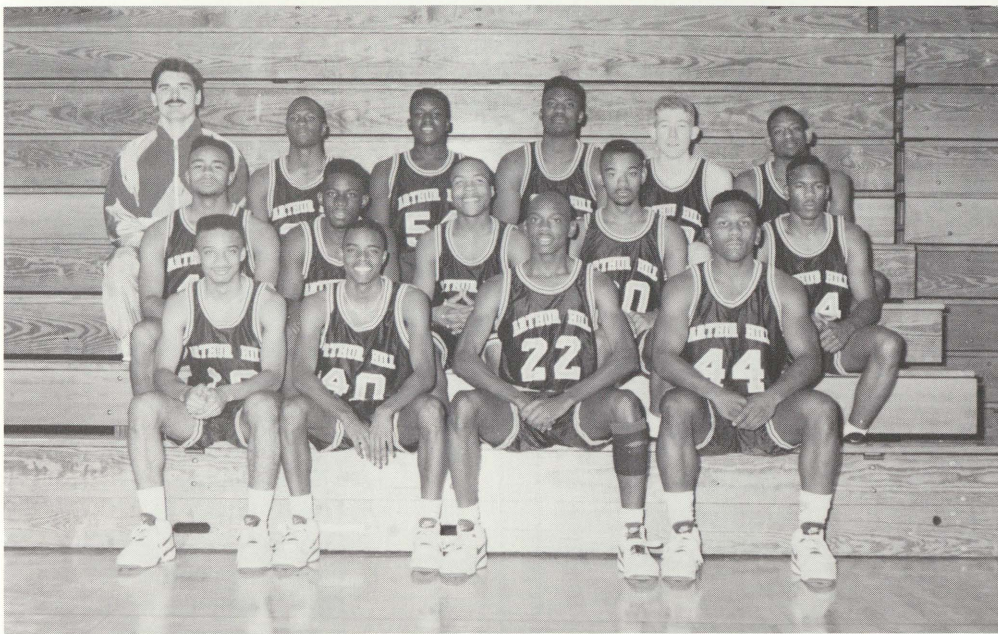

This basketball team was loaded with talent with players like: Armand Sawyer, Ty Waunne Hill, Donta Young, Darrell Carter, and Marvin Wright. Anyone of those guys could have stepped up at any time. The one thing that this team lacked was consistency. Some games they came to play and others they didn't.

Going into the District Tournament the Hillites were picked as the favorite to win it all. The Hillites had the worst draw in the tournament, having to win three games before advancing to the regionals. They started things off with the third victory of the year, over district host Heritage. The next game was against a tough Flushing squad, but the Hillites prevailed with a victory. Then the squad was hit by inconsistency in the District Championship game vs. Saginaw High. After splitting the first two games of the regular season the Saginaw High Trojans brought up players from the good J.V. team to beat us convincingly, ending our season with a 12-11 record.

Young, Diverse Icers Work Hard All Season

The 1992-93 Hillite Icers were made up of a very diverse team. The team included two foreign exchange students, Jarmo Valvio and Jorgen Kloefver, and Tracy Pockrandt, the first girl ever in the team's history.

Although the young team struggled at first and had a rough beginning, they worked very hard to achieve the best out of their games. In the past, the team has had many repetitions and suspensions that they are trying to get rid of.

The Icers have played some of the best teams in the state, including East Kentwood who is ranked number 9 in the state. Although the Icers lost to them by a 2-0 margin, it was probably their best played game all season. Some of the easier games were against Hertiage and the Flint teams.

Top scorers include Juniors Brian Klein and foreign exchange student Jarmo Valvio. Junior Matt Wenzell and Senior Nathan McKinney lead the defense.

The team looks forward to a better season next year, with many of their players returning for another great year.

Spikers Faced with Ups and Downs

The 1993 Girls Volleyball team was full of potential this year. Unfortunately they just couldn't pull it all together. The season started out rough, giving the team a shot in the arm to get it together. The girls then rebounded with three straight wins.

After that the team went down hill. However they did pull off one more win before heading for the Districts. They also placed 5th in the Valley.

They chalked up our last win in the District Tournament before losing their last game of the season to cross-town rival Saginaw High in the Semi-Finals. The season was filled with ups and downs. The girls had their good and bad times, and the crowds were really great.

Small Swim Team is Loaded With Big Guns

Many people felt that Arthur Hill's swim team would be a rebuilding team, after losing 12 seniors last year. Well, not this year. Although Arthur Hill is a small team, all of the swimmers contribute. Help from the sophomores, the exchange students, and new swimmers, plus the return of last years underclassmen, make "The Hill's" swim team one to contend with.

Arthur Hill has been known to have a lot of depth. Well, this year the Hillites reloaded with some "Big Guns", like seniors Garth Miller, Odin Andrewes, junior Dan Shelly and sophomore Mike Willmer.

With only 16 swimmers, Arthur Hill has a very small team, but with the best divers in the area, we're a hard team to beat. We had 14 swimmers swim in the Tri-City finals and junior Dan Shelly qualified for state finals. Sophomore standout Mike Willmar has already broken two of the previous records. The AHHS 200 medley relay has a great chance at qualifying for states and also to break the school record. With many returners next year, the team is sure to be good.

Grapplers Enjoy Successful Season.

Arthur Hill wrestling team has just finished one of it's most productive seasons in a long time.

"The closeness of the team helped make this such a succesful season," said head coach John McNair.

This has been one of the grapplers most successful seasons because several of the wrestlers have gained the experience that they will need down the road.

According to McNair this was also a good season because his team really pulled for aech other.

"They learned to pull for each other when they learned that wrestling in an individual thing",said McNair.

McNair went on saying, "I think that this was a successful season because the kids this year had a better attitude then those wrestlers had last year."

"We have some decent wrestlers coming back next year, I am very optimistic about it."

On Feb. 17 the grapplers traveled to Clio High School to wrestle in team districts.

"I'm not going to predict anything," McNair said before the match.

The squad came away with a second place victory with a little luck.

Arthur Hill drew a bye their first round, Flushing High School forfeited in the second round pushing the grapplers into the championship round.

McNair said, "We did okay, they could have wrestled better."

The grapplers lost the match to Clio.

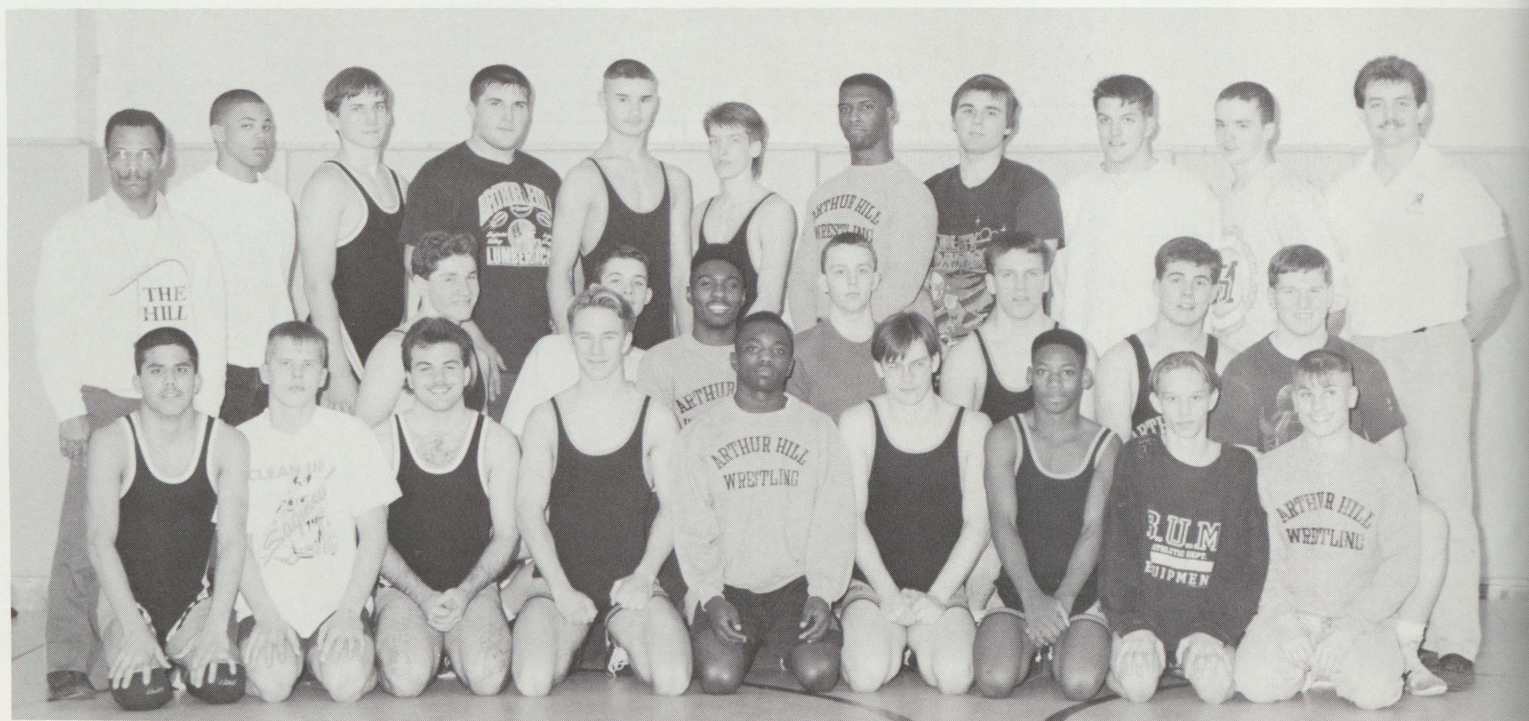

McNair said he felt that his team did not wrestle up to their full potential.

On Feb. 20 the grapplers again traveled to Clio for individual districts.

Arthur Hill came away disappointed because no one came away qualifying for individual regionals.

McNair said, "There were a couple of kids who could have wrestled better."

Kwanzaa

Kwanzaa is a holiday held to pay tribute to the rich cultural roots of Americans of African ancestry. This is observed from December 26th through January 1st.

The word Kwanzaa means "first" for the "first fruits of the Harvest." Also during this time gifts can be exchanged but this doesn't happen during hard times. Most people think this to take place of Christmas but this holiday is neither a religious, political, nor a heroic event but rather a cultural one.

Kwanzaa was founded in 1966 by Dr. Maulana Karenga, a black studies professor who describes himself as a cultural nationalist. He based the Kwanzaa holiday on seven fundamental principles referred to as the NguzoSaba.

The seven principals are unity, Umoja; self-determination, Kujichagulia; collective work and responsibility, Ujima; cooperative economics, Ujamoo; purpose, Nai; creativity, Kewmba; and faith, Lnani.

The main purpose for Kwanzaa is to find yourself in your culture, and also to be together as one or as a big cultural family.

The Latino Action Club this year is very involved many school activities. They started out selling burritos at the Fiesta. The LAC also sold carnations for Sweetest Day and they sold balloons for Christmas.

This year LAC showed support during the holidays by having a dinner for a needy family in the area.

LAC also spent time visiting the campus of Central Michigan. They wanted to make students aware that a college education is very important. The LAC also wants to sponsor a college scholarship for the Hispanic Community.

The officers that were elected this year are: President, Angie Villarel; Vice President, Rachel Ayala; and Francisco Gomez as Treasurer.

Band

The Arthur Hill High School Band, with its brand new uniforms, has been very active this year playing at football games, the Court Street Bridge Dedication, Millet Center, and at many other functions. Band Director Mr. Tim Kasten is very much pleased and encouraged by the fast and steady progress made over the past few years.

"The underclassman are getting better at a very quick rate," said Kasten. "The band might get to the big leagues quicker than I thought," he continues.

The "Big Leagues" mean different things to a director. One form of being in the "Big Leagues" would mean putting in more time in before school starts in the fall, and becoming a competitive marching band.

"There are championship game for football, and there are championship games for band," said Kasten.

These games for band that he is referring to those competitions between many practiced bands, with the winner getting much recognition. The only school in this area that has made it to statewide and national competitions, which means winning many divisional competitions, is Flushing.

Another band class is the Jazz Band. The talent level in this class high because most of the members are returning student from last year.

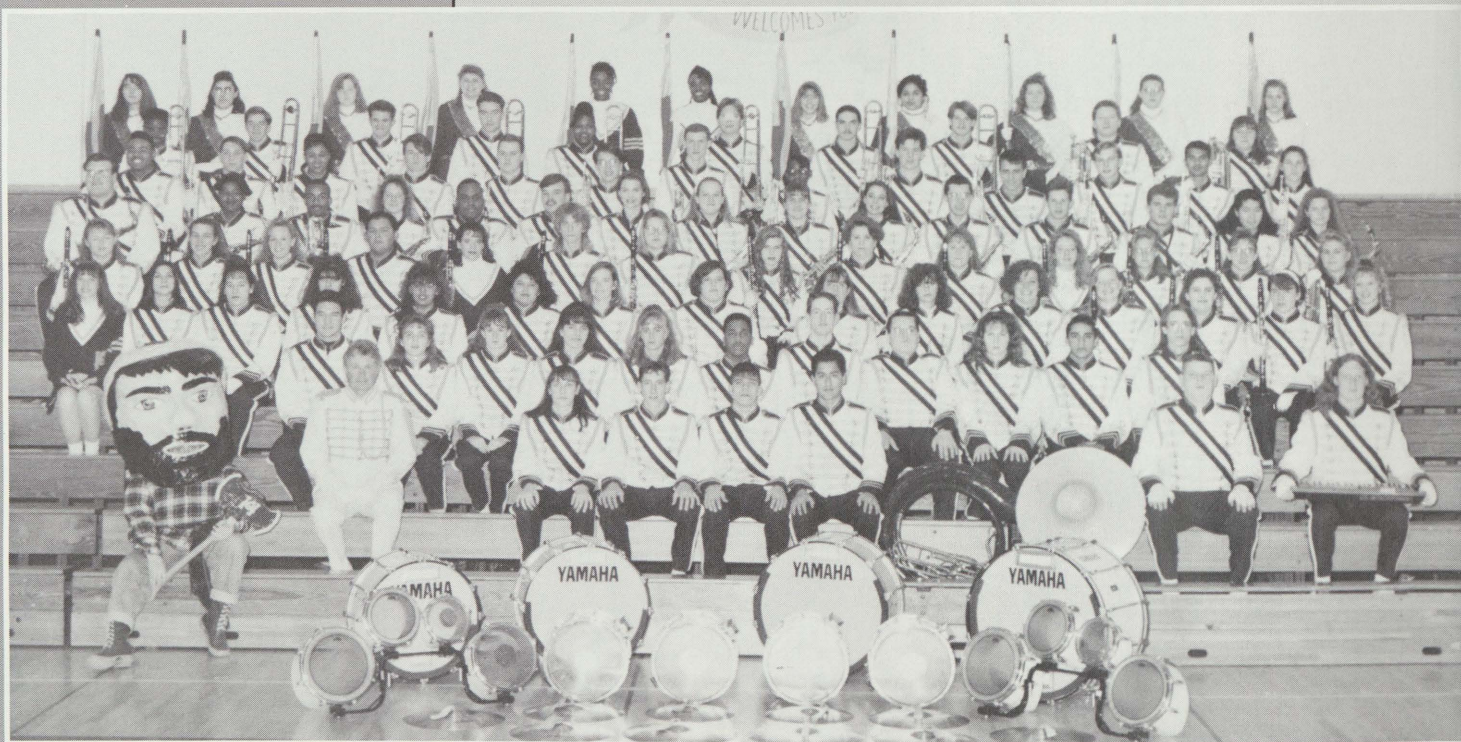

Something unusual about Jazz Band is the full instrumentation and the vocal section. These help spice up the performance and capture the audience.

"There are a lot of possibility this year," says Kasten. "There will be a great deal of variety in the types of songs, including pop, big band style, and possibly some tunes that students write write."

He also adds that the Jazz Band is a perfect vehicle for testing the students music writing ability.

This is an exciting year for the many band programs. The challenging music and the large size of both Jazz and Concert Band.

DRIVINGPlease Don't Drink and Drive

"This year Students Against Drunk Driving is one of the most active groups we've had since S.A.D.D. started in 1986. The more participation we have from young adults the more information we will get out to the peers about drinking and driving, says Mrs. Wieland."

"I think this year has been a great one for S.A.D.D. and we all get along and have fun too. We have people that all want to help." replied Larua Horb.

"This is my first year and I feel it gives me an opportunity to express my feelings about drinking and driving. I just more people would get involved." said Michelle Kemerer.

According to Mr. Hollingsworth, S.A.D.D. isn't just an organization, it is a way of life.

Christy Parent is very honored to be elected president seeing that this is her first year in the S.A.D.D. chapter. "I'm trying to do my best and hopefully by the end of the year we'll have even have more people and more ideas to go into the next year."

I think it is really good that students in America really care about other students and try to do something about it. It has been a great experience for me." replied Maria Rundberget.

This year we have been trying to do a lot of activities. We sold homemade caramel apples at the fiesta, pizza and pop at the Christmas bazaar. Our red ribbon campaign went very well, not only did we do our parking lot but we also showed that we cared by giving out red ribbons at Meijer's on Tittabawassee Rd. This year we will have our usual campaign which we give 2 dimes out to people at the prom so that if they have been drinking they can call someone to drive them.

This year we are trying to get more people in the group so that more people will take us seriously. But as long as we stop 1 person from drinking and driving that is still an accomplishment.

This year's Drama Club worked on a play entitled Perfect Timing, a romance comedy based in Great Britain. Twelve to eighteen people met in the auditorium on Thursdays from 5:30 until 6:30. Mrs. Walters, an English teacher at Arthur Hill, is the advisor for the club. One student said that she does her job well, and she knows her drama.

In the first few meetings, the group was quite small, but got bigger as the year went on. The group also marched in the homecoming parade.

A main part of the drama club was discussing plays, brainstorming, and improve/impromptu acting. Impromptu acting was done when somebody was given a character and the setting, and then the person acted according to the situation.

Michelle Basner, three year Drama Club member and this year's President, said, "This year there are a lot of new sophomore members, and that's great because it shows a lot of new interest, and it gets more people involved."

The Drama Club was a hobby for most people, but there a few that are really involved. There are also people that joined just because they wanted to be on the stage crew, helping with lighting and sound.

The Drama Club gave many people a lot of opportunities for growth and expressing themselves, and was a positive, involved club at Arthur Hill.

IT'S ALL ABOUT Student Council

The always involved Student Council has carried out tradition, in addition to working on some new ideas for this year. The council is trying to bring back the student store, but this time having it open before school and during 10 min. break. A very new tradition started this year was to have a live tree in the cafeteria for all the students to admire.

President Dennis Novak Jr. has also started a new tradition by making morning announcements. His pep talk in the morning is very up lifting to many students.

Unfortunately the Snowball Dance sponsored by the council was cancelled because of lack of interest. The money made from this was suppose to go for Toys for Tots, but instead the council had a food and toy drive from all the 3rd hours. The winners won a pizza party at lunch.

The students that were elected for the council are Dennis Novak Jr. President, Marvin Wright Vice President, Johanna Landeryou Secretary, and Joan Romanz as Treasurer.

Dennis Novak Jr., President of the Student Council, was very active in every school function.

Black Studies

The Black Studies Club of AHHS was founded in 1978 by Mrs. Theodora Morris. There was a need at the time for African-American students to feel more empowered at AH and more involved with extra-curricular activities.

It has been the goal of the club since then to give students an opportunity to further develop leadership skills. As they learn about African/African-American cultures. Several past members of the BSC have gone on to higher education and highly successful careers. The club has reinforced highly motivated students to learn more about social issues as well as developing unity.

The club presents the Ronald McNair award to it's most outstanding member.

When most people hear about being in choir, they think it's going to be "an easy A". It's more work than most people think.

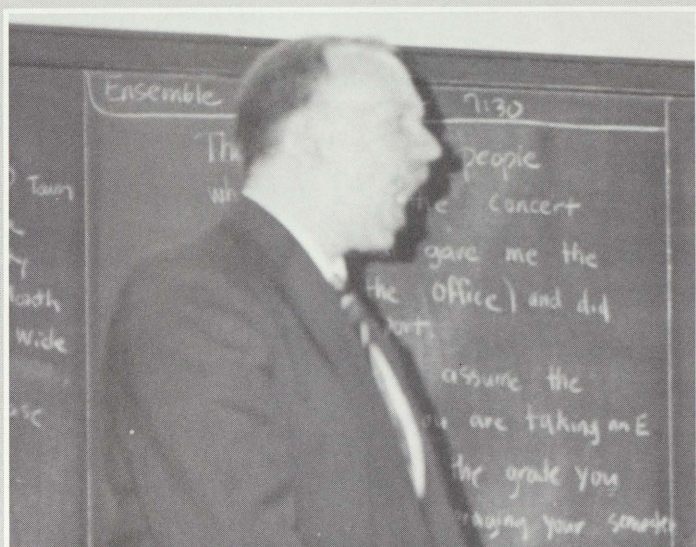

During class, they work on scales and practice songs until they reach near perfection. They sing at many school functions, such as many school assemblies, Vespers, and annual concerts.

There are two levels of choir. A mixed choir, which consists of students just starting out in the field of singing. The second class is made up of advanced students that have had choir or some musical background.

Another added bonus to choir is the small ensemble. The small ensemble is made up of just a few people that sing in harmony. This group goes to competitions, sings at some nursing homes, and in the past sang at the Saginaw Country Club.

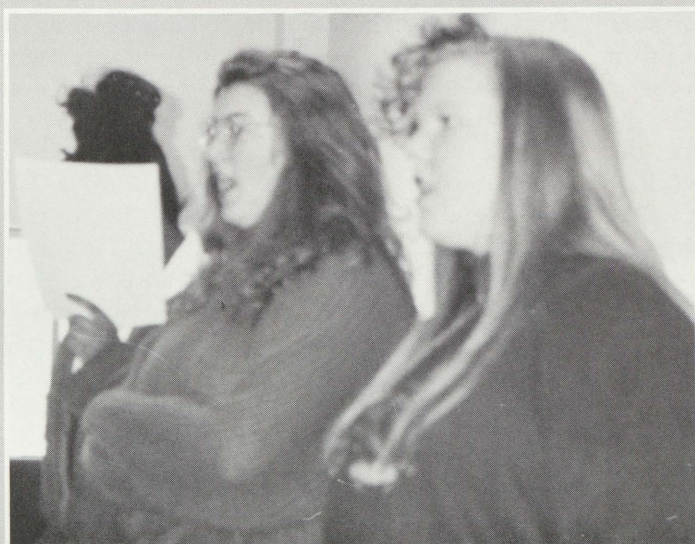

Being in choir helps a student to take on the responsibility of self discipline and the ability to be in front of large crowds.

Mr. Flenjie helps show the class how to warm up properly.

Jill Groom, Leslie Gorr, Josie Hernandez, are enjoying learning the scales!

Katie Kolb and Rachel Carpender love doing the warmups.

Tech Club

Micheal Gubody works on the mold of the De Vinci III, he hopes will be on the way to National Competition.

The Tech. Club has seen better years than last year. Plagued by the economy and some of our suppliers, Da Vinci III started off at a slow pace and our annual participation at the International Human Powered Races was cancelled. The Tech. Club is currently the only high school team that competes in the races.

This year has begun on a better tune: our funding campaign has yielded good fruit, work on Da Vinci III has picked up and it looks like we will be going to the International races with three completed cycles. The geometry of the new cycle is off the drafting table, the components are being ordered, and the mold for the fairing, the aerodynamic Kevlar and epoxy skin, is being shaped.

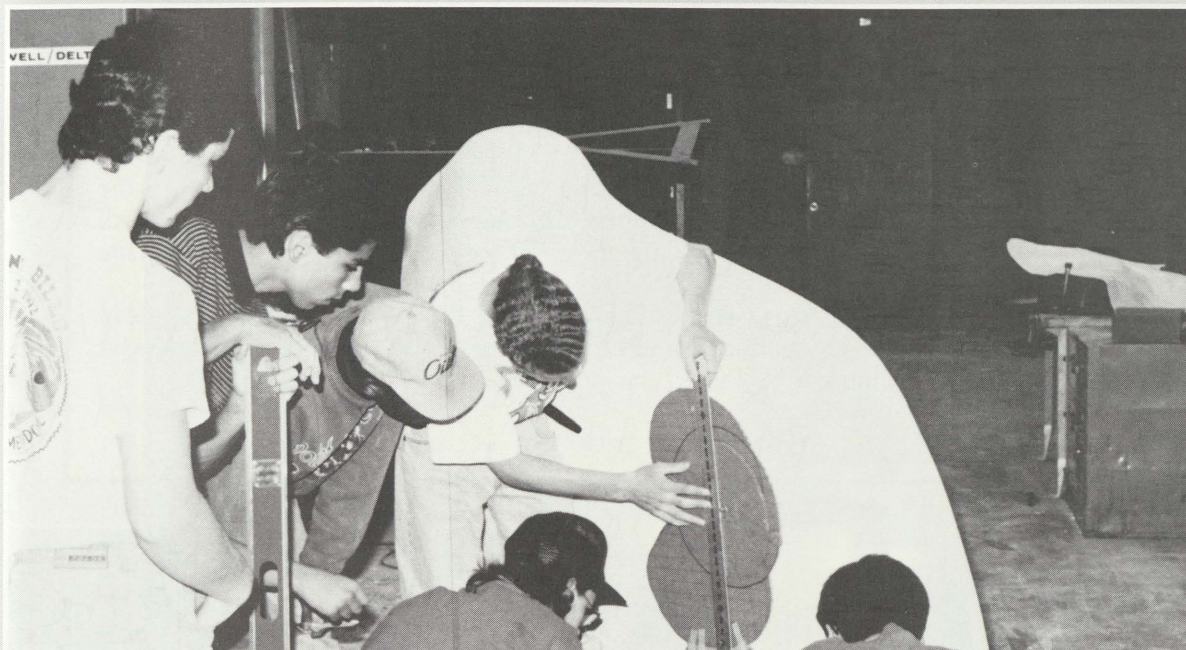

Da Vinci III has a new design from our prior models, three wheels have yielded to two. The cycle is also higher off the ground, lessening ground effect, and shortened in length, lessening aerodynamic drag.

We have still elected to keep our recumbent design and a normal back-wheel drive.

Many of our members are from the student body, however the remaining members are no strangers to Arthur Hill. These alumni, who attended local colleges and universities, are constantly keeping in contact and attending the weekly meetings. We would like to salute these devoted members and extend our gratitude. We also have many minorities in the club, representing the local diversity of the community. The club even has been enlightened with a second advisor, Mr. Dave Hatton, who assists the original advisor, Mr. Isotalo. Some of the members are also in training to pedal the cycles in the international races.

Even though jokes are frequent, good quality work still is accomplished.

Jazz Band

The Arthur Hill jazz band is bigger this year than it has been in the past. Mr. Kasten says that 30 people is really big for a regular jazz group.

In this class the students learn about the jazz rhythms and a little of the history of where jazz comes from. The class starts off by each student playing a solo and this builds the students confidence.

The most unique thing about jazz band to concert band is the use of lead and bass guitars. Another feature to this band is the vocal section. Some of the singers are either instrument players or from the choir class.

This year Mr. Kasten intends for the jazz band to compete in state competitions, and he also to take them on a class trip to Ceder Point.

The Pride Committee is an organization made up of members of the various sports and clubs here at Arthur Hill. Members range from Varsity Basketball players to Technology Club members.

The main function of the committee is to promote a positive image of Arthur Hill and to keep the school looking nice. The Committee started the year by selling commemorative mugs of the 1991 State Championship Football team. These mugs were sold as a fundraiser for various projects that were sponsored by Pride Committee throughout the year.

This year's advisor was biology teacher Al Garcia. The president was Lisa Turner, Vice President Joan Romatz, and Secretary/Treasurer Michelle Basner. Thanks to this year's Pride Committee, Arthur Hill reflected the true meaning of "pride and excellence."

THE MAKING OF a signature page

One cold and snowy day, a dedicated yearbook advisor, Mr. Calvin Mott, proclaimed to the editors the now famous words, "more pages now!" The editors quickly realized that this was one of those days where they couldn't sleep through class, or at least not while he was watching.

The groggy editors yawned and rubbed their eyes, trying to adjust to the bright fluorescent lighting in the classroom. They then gathered to begin a complicated ritual to decide what pages to make. These conferences always go smoother when the editors have a good sense of page design, a feeling and appreciation for the connected feel that a good yearbook should have, and the ability to make important decisions and good compromises. Since none of our editors came close to possessing any of those qualities, the meeting usually went something like this:

Mr. Mott to Kelly: "More pages now!"
(Now infamous line)

Kelly to Phil: "We need more pages. How about a signature page?"

Phil to Kelly: "I hate signature pages, but, well, fine."

Then Phil spends the next three days working on a 5-minute signature page, and then the page is then sent through a complicated proofreading and editing process which usually involves Angie glancing at the page and stuffing it into an envelope. The page is then sent at the lowest possible postage available off to some yearbook plant which we all contend consists of a grumpy old man and a typewriter.

After months of work and buckets of white-out, the grumpy old man sends our yearbooks to Arthur Hill at an even lower postage than we used.

It has been proven in repeated unscientific studies that students never use designated signature pages, but rather they sign all over the inside covers. Nevertheless, even though grumpy old man is probably the only human who will ever read this page, the editors are very proud of it. We thank you for reading this history of a signature page, and we sincerely hope that we left you enough room to actually get some signatures.

-Phil Treib, editor

Stacey,

This page sucks. it looks real stupid and its in a funky place. Well, its been interesting this year. but next year will rock. take it slow and enjoy it, and this summer have fun and enjoy it cuz this year has been a hard school year. good luck with Paul and I hope - Sorry this card is a little bumpy. After Surprisingly Down Season, Senior Kickers Beam with Optimism

After a suprisingly down year in 1992 Coach Mott expects this years team, which is loaded with seniors, to be the best since 1991 when they recorded an 11-6-1 season. "This is the most experienced team I have had," stated Coach Mott.

Coach Mott believes ten of his seniors can step up and provide leadership at any time.

With the huge number of upperclassmen on the team they should do pretty good this year Just as long as they can count on some of the underclassmen to also step up and provide some quality playing time.

Girls Track Looking for Bright Season

The girl's track team seems to have a bright season ahead of them. Coach Ray Hollingsworth comments that this year's team is the largest and the best in the seven years of his coaching at AH.

Hollingsworth also said that there is not a single leader, but many, each of whom strive to help everyone work as a team.

This year's team is a very diverse one also. We hope to have a successful and winning season.

-Margaret Shook

"There is not a single leader, but many."

-Ray Hollingsworth

Boys Track Adjust, Set Goals

The boy's track team had to make a large adjustment to a change in coaching this year. Instead of having separate coaches for each team, boy's and girl's, there now is one.

Ray Hollingsworth is the head coach for both teams, assisted by Mary Mudd and Danny Ramirez. In spite of this, Hollingsworth commends the boys track team for being as strong as ever.

With many returning members and a few new ones, this year's team plans on breaking old records and setting a few of their own.

Girls Softball Team in Growing Stage

This year's varsity girls softball season is starting to come into focus.

This year's team will be leaded by seniors Tracy Beaudin in her third year, Alex Worthington in her second year, Sara Kemerer, Lisa Speck, Tonia Price, and Kristin Mickey.

Juniors Kelly Libby, Tracy Pockrandt, and Stephanie Sharpe.

Sophomores Stacy Dupuis, Amy Gallagher, and Blu Edlinger.

This year's team is looking for "girls who are entergenic and are willing to have fun, and work hard" replied Co-Coach Procuero.

The team is also looking for girls who are dedicated to the team.

"We are looking for seniors to be our leaders" replied Coach Pat Teter.

"Pitching was a problem last year, but hopefully we will have better pitching this year, along with good attitudes" said Teter.

Teter also added "these seniors should be peaking, Tracy Beaudin, Sara Kemerer, and Kristin Mickey".

Tracy Beaudin is the A.H.H.S. varsity softball star pitcher.

"Before the game I get nervous but, as long as I get my hip into it and get it across the plate, I'm O.K." replied Beaudin.

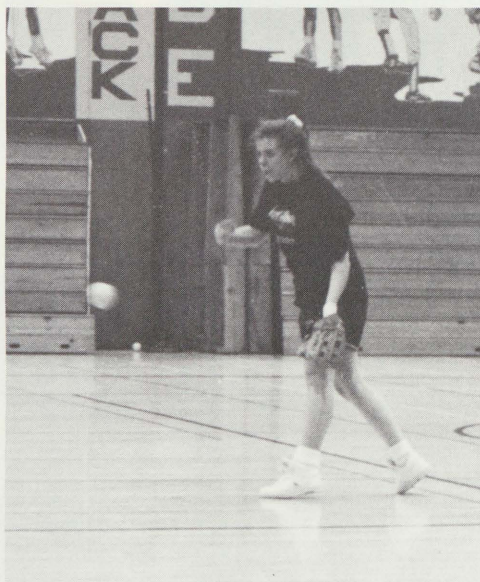

"I would also like to see the team win more games than we did last year" replied Beaudin.

Other A.H.H.S. varsity pitchers' include Stacy Dupuis and Alex Worthington.

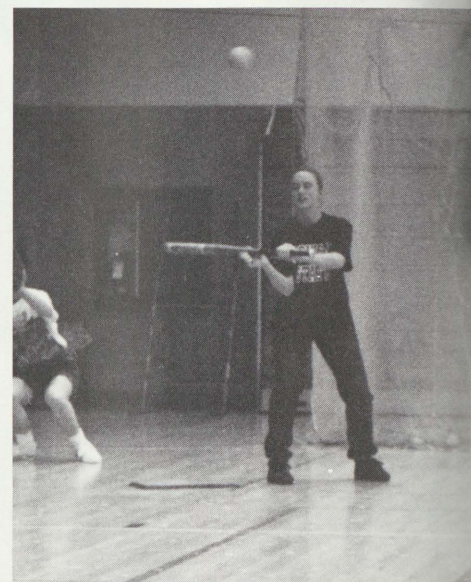

"I would like to compete well in our first game" replied Beaudin.

The first game will be on Monday, April 19, 1993, aganist Midland High at Midland at 3:30 p.m.

Tennis Team Expecting the Best

Though the Arthur Hill boy's tennis team does not have the established tradition that say the boy's swimming or football teams have, this year's team is experienced and strong. Last year was a rebuilding year for the boy's tennis program, and this year is definitely going to be a good year for the team.

Through returning players and the depth that is needed to have a strong team, many expect that the AH boy's tennis team will have the best season played by the boy's tennis team in a long time. All of the players are working hard, and hopefully through dedication and practice, the boy's tennis season will be successful. And the AH tennis team will be another AH team to be truly proud of.

What is important to you when making a college choice?

- ▶ Availability of your preferred major
- ▶ Preparation for a rewarding career
- ▶ Opportunity for financial assistance
- ▶ Close personal attention from highly qualified faculty
- ▶ Close-to-home location

If this is what you're searching for, you'll discover all that and more at Saginaw Valley State University. We invite you to visit our campus to learn more about your future with us.

Please call today!

WE MAJOR IN STUDENT LOANS.

The cost of a college education has never been steeper. That's why it's never been more important to get the financing right, with the right kind of student loan.

And it's really quite easy to get it wrong.

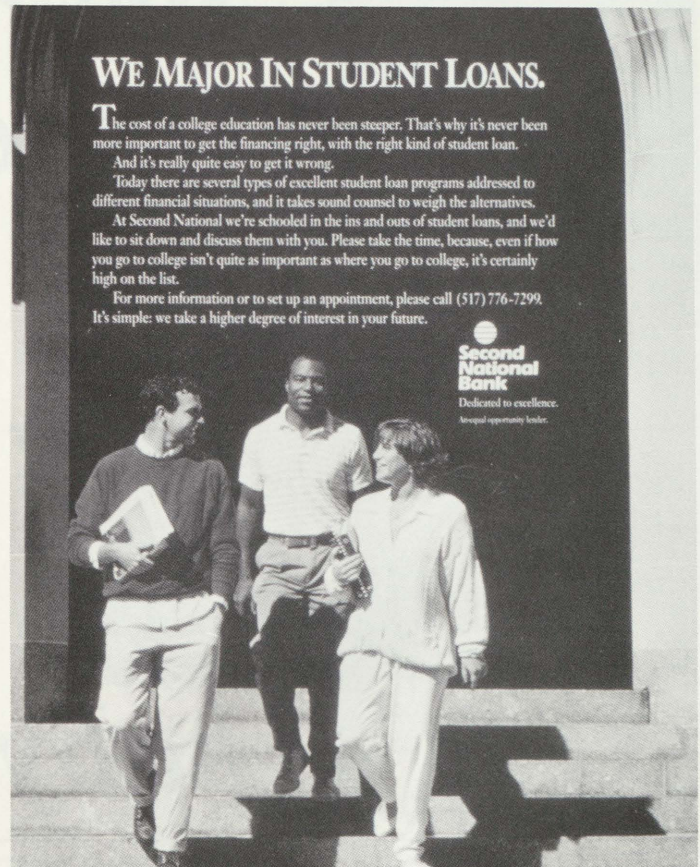

Today there are several types of excellent student loan programs addressed to different financial situations, and it takes sound counsel to weigh the alternatives.

At Second National we're schooled in the ins and outs of student loans, and we'd like to sit down and discuss them with you. Please take the time, because, even if how you go to college isn't quite as important as where you go to college, it's certainly high on the list.

For more information or to set up an appointment, please call (517) 776-7299. It's simple: we take a higher degree of interest in your future.

Dedicated to excellence.
An equal opportunity lender.

MEMORIES

Write your favorite 1992-1993 memories here.

Stacey,
I'm writing in this spot because I know that I'm your favorite 1993 memories, cuz you know you are mine. Thankz for all the wild sex in 4th hour, and I'm looking forward to seeing you next year. I hope we got a class together, because you are gold on to p. Thankz for letting me poke you all those times. I'll repay the favor whenever you are in need in the future, O.K. I know we lost met, but you kiss like you've known me all your life. It's been fun caressing your nice legs, and I'm sorry for the mystery bruises you got sometimes after we're finished. I have my silk shirt on. I apologize for the summer, and that whenever I have my silk shirt on. I apologize for the times I stood you up and you. (You should be so good!) I hope you think of me during the summer, and that you ant-cipate the fun we'll have next year. You can't say I never take you anywhere we went to the concert together. I apologize for some scars I may have left st. rped 4th hour, I hope you'll find it in your heart to forgive me. I think I can find some way to make it up to you. I was nice meeting you, and it was nicer getting closer to you. I wish you luck with your man, and hope you have a great summer, (Just playing Paul) I wish you luck with your man, and hope you have a great summer,
Be cool and wild, and don't lie to yourself, you ain't fat, your fine the way you are, that's the way I like you. Manda is fat, but that's the way I like her too.

COLOPHON

The 1993 Legenda was the 79th edition of the official Arthur Hill High School Yearbook. The Legenda was sold to students for $25 in September and later increased to $30 in October with a final price of $35 after the final October deadline for purchasing.

The name Legenda means "Things to Read."

The cover was Royal Blue 533 and Yellow Gold 371. The book was embossed with a seal screened flat containing #371 yellow gold on die A-2.

Endsheets were bright yellow #107 and Royal Blue #533.

The book was printed by Jostens Publishing Company of Clarksville, Tenn. The book was printed on 80 pound No. 191 gloss paper.

The typeface used for all copy and headlines was Palatino. The point sizes were as following: body and captions - 10 or 12 pt., classes and composites - 10 pt., folios - 12 pt., index - 9 pt., and headlines - varied.

Black and white prints were taken with Kodak TMAX 400 and 3200 ASA film. Color pictures were taken with various brands of 400 ASA.

The Legenda is published annually by a yearbook staff. The staff met during 4th hour and used the yearbook lab during 7th hour. Yearbook is part of the journalism department at Arthur Hill.

Mr. Ken Drake was the Josten's Representative. Calvin Mott was the Advisor. Angela Inman, Phil Treib, and Kelly Warner were the Editors.

Additional specifications may be obtained through the Advisor. No portions of this book can be reproduced without the expressed, written consent of Mr. Calvin Mott, Arthur Hill High School Yearbook, 3115 Mackinaw, Saginaw, MI, 48602.

1992-93

• Arthur Hill High School •

You may be wondering what this final story is all about, I guess you could say it's the grand finale. It's the end to many things, not just the yearbook. It's the end of the 1992-93 year for all fellow Hillites.

With endings, often follow mixed emotions. This is true of the Senior class of 1993, as they venture forward in their futures, they possess a feeling of urgency and a sense of sadness. Even though they look forward to graduation, they know they will also miss Arthur Hill.

On the other hand the Juniors all agree they are in a state of shock and excitement. They are beginning to realize that they too are approaching their final year at Arthur Hill.

There is a sigh of relief coming from the Sophomore class. They are happy to have survived their first year of high school. The change may have seemed drastic at first, but now they all feel very comfortable here.

It has always been very easy to feel comfortable here at Arthur Hill. The atmosphere is very friendly and inviting. Were all like one big family, and as families go through many different changes or experiences together, so have we.

We have a newly elected President this year, Bill Clinton. Our community has expanded with the completion of the Anderson Bridge, replacing the old Court Street Bridge. News of CEISEN creating hundreds of jobs in the near future has brightened our outlook in Saginaw.

However, as we have experienced many great happenings this year, we also expected there were a few let downs. The Arthur Hill Football Team returned to the Silverdome to be defeated in a very close 21-20 Class AA game. The nation had to deal with many disasters such as Hurricane Andrew, the L.A. Riots caused by the Rodney King trial verdict, and the starvation in Somalia.

Fellow Hillites here at Arthur Hill will remember these tragedies as times that we all learned to support each other in times of need. We learned to pull together to prove how strong we really are.

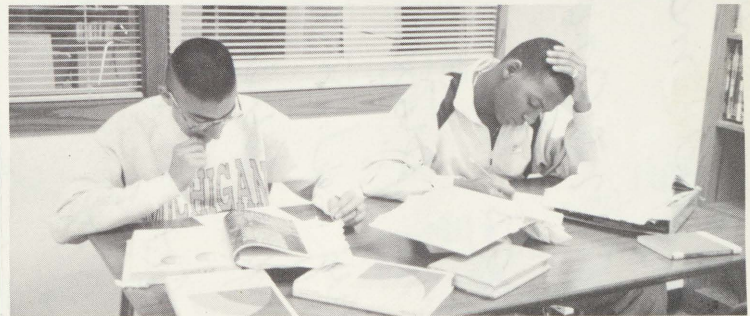

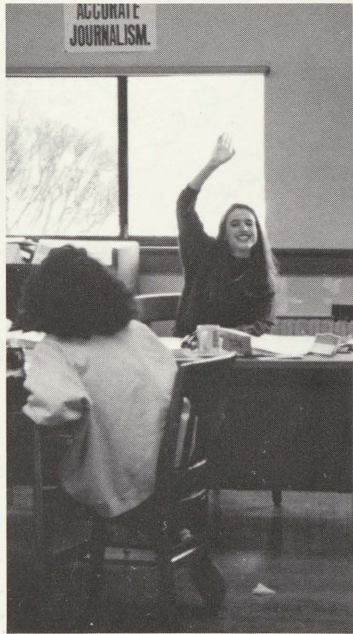

The 1992-93 school year will be remembered as the year before Freshmen enter the Hill. With the incoming Sophomores and Freshmen next year, there will follow many new changes. We would like to wish all past and future Hillites Good Luck!

STACEY - my red car women who rides with me back to A.H.S. we've had many stories told back & forth among one another. I thank my best was Jawsas. You & Paul are quite an item. I'm proud. Maybe not & I will be that way. I'm going to miss talking to you everyday. So you'll have to call alot & if I can ever find you, you'll get a ring from me. Like I told kimmy we will all have to get together this summer & if were nice we will bring the males too. Well my last thing to say will be - "I wish you lots & lots of luck & love in your future. Don't forget me - although I m

love you

So Stacey
 well we'll do
 I start. you know how I feel about you but I'll tell you anyway.
 you cool with clamy strang and you put up with just Stacey. So that's okay. But I hope will stay in we stepped over the summer. But we're touch over the summer. See you this unrepresentable. So I guess I'll see you this summer and tomorrow. Love left
